New England Mutual Life Ins.,
Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,
Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.
Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.
The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.
Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.
Willard Phillips, President; B. F. Stevens, Sec'y;
CHAS. PULKER, Agent.
O. P. Robinson, Examining Physician.
June 13th, 1854. 41

CHAS. C. CHENEY,
29tf Agent for the Northwest

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,
LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.
All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.
We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.
Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by letting them alone.
Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.
We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.
The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.
TRAVELING AGENTS Wanted for Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan.
N. W. DEAN, President.
B. F. Hopkins, Secretary.
C. C. OLIN, Gen. Agent.
L. J. Farwell, Treasurer. 42y1

FANNING MILLS.

MADE by the Subscriber, which drew the PREMIUM at the New York State Fair, and improved so as to separate Oats from Wheat, which are
WARRANTED SUPERIOR to any in use in the United States.

EMPIRE CASH STORE!
The Cheapest Store in the County.

THE LARGEST, Most General and Best Selected Stock of MERCHANDISE ever introduced to the people of Rock and the adjoining counties is now received at the EMPIRE CASH STORE. A Stock larger than any Two Stores in Janesville to be Sold for CASH, at prices that all can see are at least 25 per cent lower than the PRETENDED CASH STORES SELL FOR.
We mean what we say exactly: We can sell you
MORE GOODS
FOR THE
Least amount of Money
Than any other Store in the county. For this reason we sell more Goods than any two Stores in Janesville, and this year we intend to sell more than any three, consequently, we can sell just one-third cheaper, as our expenses are no more by selling so much than they would be did we not sell any more than our neighbors.
Reduce The Price and Increase the Speed
Is the order of the day; and in order to do so, we have purchased this spring larger than ever, and intend to sell at prices to astonish everybody.
We buy Goods to SELL, and intend everybody shall understand this by our prices. We have purchased every thing by the Cord in the way of Merchandise. Our Stock embraces every thing in the Goods line, kept in such a store as ours only, commencing with
DRY GOODS, GROCERIES,
CROCKERY, HARDWARE in connection with a general STOVE TRADE,
READY-MADE CLOTHING,
BOOTS and SHOES, HATS, BONNETS, RIBBONS and CAPS, &c. &c.,
To enumerate which would be impossible, (any one seeing our stock will be satisfied of that).
All we have to say is we have JUST WHAT YOU WANT, AT PRICES TO SUIT YOU, a fact which all can see by calling at the EMPIRE CASH STORE.

New England Mutual Life Ins.,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Willard Phillips, President; B. F. Stevens, Sec'y; CHAS. PULKER, Agent.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected POSITIVELY, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

Sky-Light Daguerreotypes.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE.

75 Cents to $5,00.

MR. J. E. POWERS, lately from Troy, (N. Y.) respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity that he hasmade a permanent location in Janesville, and has taken rooms over EHLE'S JEWELRY STORE, where he is prepared to take

Daguerreotype Likenesses,

Either single or in groups, not to be surpassed in Wisconsin. Miniatures taken in as good style as the Art can produce, having all the improved chemicals of the age, which, together with the advantages of a superior light, enable him to give a clear, bold and life-like picture.

Miniatures taken in all weathers equally well, and warranted not to fade in the least, from 75 cents to $1. Pictures taken over for 50 cents.

Lockets and fancy cases of all styles furnished to order, and also miniatures in Pin and Bracelets.

Miniatures of sick or diseased persons taken at their residences if required.

Pictures of Children of any age correctly taken at very low rates.

His Room will be open from 7 A. M. to 5. P. M., and he invites all those that wish to see GOOD Pictures, to

Call and Examine his Specimens,

whether they wish likenesses or not.

Among these specimens are Miniatures of Henry Clay, John P. Hale, Jenny Lind and General Tom Thumb.

RAILROADS.

Summer Arrangement.

1854 MILWAUKEE 1854

And Mississippi Railroad.

NOW in operation from Milwaukee to Madison, about 100 miles.

On and after May 29th, 1854, the trains will run as follows, except Sundays:

GOING WESTWARDLY.

A passenger train will leave Milwaukee at 7,30 A. M., arrive at Janesville at 11 A. M, at Madison, the capital of the State, at 12,40 P. M,

A passenger train will also leave Milwaukee at 5,15 P. M., on the arrival of the boat from Chicago, and reach Janesville and Madison the same evening.

GOING EASTWARDLY.

A passenger train will leave Madison for the present at 3 A. M., and Janesville at 5 A. M, and arrive at Milwaukee at 8, 30 A. M., in time to connect with the morning boat to Chicago.

A passenger train will also leave Madison at 1.30 P. M., and Janesville at 3,30 P. M., and arrive at Milwaukee at 7 P. M., in time to connect with the evening boat for Chicago.

Freight trains run each way every day the entire length of the road.

Stages will run in connection with the cars to and from the Forest House and Whitewater, to Watertown, Fort Winnebago, Fond du Lac, Beaver Dam, Horicon, Waupun and Berlin, which will commence running on and after June 10th.

Also from Janesville and Madison, to Sauk, Baraboo, Dodgeville, Mineral Point, Florence, Galena, Dubuque and to various other portions of the state.

Passengers are ticketed to and from Madison to Chica at $5,00; and to and from Janesville to Chicago at $3,00.

N. B. The price from Millwaukee to all eastern points is the same as from Chicago, which makes the Milwaukee route the cheapest by several dollars.

EDWARD H. BRODHEAD,

39 Engineer and Superintendent.

EMPIRE CASH STORE!

The Cheapest Store in the County.

THE LARGEST, Most General and Best Selected Stock of MERCHANDISE ever introduced to the people of Rock and the adjoining counties is now received at the EMPIRE CASH STORE. A Stock larger than any Two Stores in Janesville to be Sold for CASH, at prices that all can see are at least 25 per cent lower than the PRETNDED CASH STORES SELL FOR.

We mean what we say exactly: We can sell you

FOR THE

Least amount of Money

Than any other Store in the county. For this reason we sell more Goods than any two Stores in Janesville, and this year we intend to sell more than any three, consequently, we can sell just one-third cheaper, as our expenses are no more by selling so much than they would be did we not sell any more than our neighbors.

Reduce The Price and Increase the Speed

Is the order of the day; and in order to do so, we have purchased this spring larger than ever, and intend to sell at prices to astonish everybody.

We buy Goods to SELL, and intend everybody shall understand this by our prices. We have purchased every thing by the Cord in the way of Merchandise. Our Stock embraces every thing in the Goods line, kept in such a store as ours only, commencing with

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES,

CROCKERY, HARDWARE in connection with a general STOVE TRADE,

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

BOOTS and SHOES, HATS, BONNETS, RIBBONS and CAPS, &. &c.,

To enumerate which would be impossible, (any one seeing our stock will be satisfied of that).

All we have to say is we have JUST WHAT YOU WANT, AT PRICES TO SUIT YOU, a fact which all can see by calling at the EMPIRE CASH STORE.

New England Mutual Life Ins.,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Willard Phillips, President; B. F. Stevens, Sec'y;

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected POSITIVELY, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

SKETCHES OF BORDER-LIFE.

FLEET FOOT.—A LEGEND OF KENTUCKY.

BY WILLIAM T. COGGESHALL.

[Concluded.]

A considerable length of time had elapsed while the hunter was engaged in his dangerous enterprise of reconnoitering, and of communicating the glad tidings to the prisoners and it was far advanced in the night. He had for more than an hour expected that the Indians would appoint a watch for the prisoners, and break up their council. It must have been near midnight when he was gratified with a sight of preparations on the part of the savages, for a couple of hour's repose before they started on the march of the coming day. The hunter cautiously retreated from his proximity to the camp. Two savages left the main body, and approached their prisoners—the others wrapped themselves in their blankets, and stretched themselves upon the ground to sleep. The savages had secured their prisoners by tying their hands tightly behind large trees. They stood in this painful position several yards distant from each other.—The two warriors left to guard, manifested no disposition to allow them any position more favorable to rest or repose. Fleet Foot was a thoughtful observer of this neglect and it did not auger well in his mind for the safety of the prisoners on the morrow. He was impressed that the council which had just broken up, had decided on bloody deeds. He dare not act alone under such trying circumstances, and he determined to see Mac. It would have been no easy task for an inexperienced woodsman to have found his companion under such trying circumstances, but Fleet Foot had calculated well what were his chances of return to his friend, and he found but little difficulty in tracing his way to the vicinity where he left Mac. A signal well understood between the hunters, and not calculated to alarm the savages, had they heard it, was given and answered, and in a few minutes the brother and lover were earnestly consulting what was to be done to rescue Kate and her fellow prisoners.

"There are ten or a dozen of 'em," said Fleet Foot, "I can't exactly tell which, but any how, there's too many of 'em for us to fight, by powder; Ingins or no Ingins, them wimen shall be out of their clutches afore the varmints leave this camp, or I'm a dead hunter."

"That's my mind to a har," answered Mac, grasping Fleet Foot's hand.

"It's tarnal queer old Martin haint come up, but may be he has seen this fire, just as we did, and there's half a dozen of other fellows sneakin' about here now."

"May be," said Mac, "but we can't find 'em, and darsent make any signal or we'll have all them Ingins up in a minit, and no tellin' what might happen. We must calculate without 'em, and if we get into a fight and old Martin's about here, we'll have him on our side quick enough."

"Well," returned Fleet Foot, "there's only one way to do it—that fire's getting low—it wouldn't be queer if them Ingins on the watch went to sleep, 'cause they know the prisoners can't get away; and I'm certain they don't suspect anybody's on the track of 'em. Ef they did they wouldn't keep up sich a fire. Now, you follow me, and we'll go over there and watch the varmints, and whenever they shut their eyes, you take one and I'll take the other so quick he shan't give even a grunt, and then it'll be an easy matter to cut the prisoners loose."

Mac agreed to this arrangement. Daylight was now drawing near. Whatever plans were calculated on, must be executed without delay. The hunters knew if they succeeded in releasing the prisoners, as soon as the Indians discovered their loss, they would put forth every exertion, and exercise all their cunning to retake them; but with all this hazard before them, they resolved to release them if it was in their power, and trust to luck. shrewdness, and the probability of assistance from Martin's party. They were convinced that one or more of the prisoners would be killed on the morrow, and bravely and generously they thought it was worth while to risk their two lives to save three, one of which was particularly valuable to both hunters, but peculiarly so to one of them.

When the two Indian guards were growing weary and sleepy, they had no suspicions that two hunters with drawn knives were ready, if they slumbered, to make that their last sleep.

Fleet Foot began to fear that daylight would dawn before the savages nodded, and that the others would awaken and all would be lost.—Every moment increased the danger and narrowed the probabilities of rescue and escape. At length he brought himself to believe that the moment for action had arrived. He gave the concerted signal, and approached his victims who stood erect against a tree. He was successful, and drove his knife to the heart of the savage, who may have been dreaming, perhaps, of a wigwam far away, where children, of whom he was proud, awaited his return. The savage fell in his last sleep, heavily to the ground. That one which Mac was to have attacked, was startled by the fall. He was sitting upon the ground, nodding, but was not sound asleep. He sprang to his feet when Mac was not yet near enough to strike him. In an instant he would have been away from the dim light of the fire and out of sight of the hunter, but Mac rushed upon and grappled with him. Fleet Foot sprang to cut the bands which confined the prisoners. Meantime Mac struggled with the savage; both were powerful men—for a moment the savage was confused, and did not employ his strength and agility as he might have done under ordinary circumstances—of this confusion the hunter took advantage, and was quick enough to plunge his knife into the red man's breast—he fell with a cry which aroused his fellow warriors, who slumbered in confidence that his watchfulness protected them.

Ten Indians were on their feet, with their rifles in their hands, before the death cry of their guard had died in the woods. The fire, which they had left brightly burning, had nearly gone out. The brands were scattered. They could neither see their prisoners nor any foes. They did not rush forward to ascertain the fate of their sentinels, nor did they flee hastily from the spot where they had been sleeping. Each individual quietly skulked around a tree. No foe could see them. Not one of them could either see or hear a foe, but nevertheless there were very dangerous foes quite near them.

When Fleet Foot rushed to release the prisoners, he found the good work accomplished. A rough hand grasped his arm, and a voice which he knew well, said:

"We've been watchin' the varmints most all night. They're skeered now, but they won't run nor show themselves yet awhile; our boys understands. We must lay low with our guns cocked till its day, and we'll all git a blaze at 'em. How many?"

"Ten I guess," said Fleet Foot.

"Take care o' this woman;" said old Martin.

It was Kate. Fleet Foot said not a word; but put his arm around the girl as if he had a special right to protect her.

There was no wind stirring. It was as quiet in the deep woods, as if there had been no Indian camp—no desperate adventure—no struggle or scene of death. Softly the morning light began to steal through the dense foliage—it searched its way among the green leaves, and slowly dissipated the gloom which hung tenaciously around the trunks of the trees—among the low bushes, and in the wooded ravines. The fox went snuffing to his hole—the rabbit hopped timidly from one moss bed or grass tuft to another—the birds left their nests and sang sweetly on twigs, which overhung fallen leaves stained with blood—the squirrel left its nest, and sat securely chippering on boughs that bent toward ashes, which were the result of a flame that had given light for the planning and executing of bold and daring designs.

Many an animal was, no doubt, watching in that fresh light of morning for an opportunity to secure such prey as he was wont to satisfy his hunger upon; and there were other eyes watching an opportunity to satisfy a passion, which will lead men often to more desperate deeds than hunger. The quiet, beautiful scene, a lover of nature would have rejoiced to delight in, was to be disturbed by other conflicts than those between cruel animals and their victims.

It was scarcely broad daylight, when one of the Indian warriors thought he saw a movement in a clump of bushes, a dozen rods or more distant from him. He watched, intently. He was not mistaken; other Indians had their suspicions excited; knowing glances were exchanged. The suspicious bush became more attractive to the savages. Presently, what was apparently a woman's bonnet, was to be seen cautiously elevated nearly to the top of the bushes, slowly turning around as if there were foes, or suspicious sign of foes in view. A rifle report rang through the forest, and the exposed bonnet disappeared. Again the woods was free from unusual sounds. It was not long before Indians skulked from one tree to another. They were at first very cautious, but they saw nothing to awaken suspicion, and they became more bold. Now one left his ambuscade, then another. It was not long before eight warriors stood near the spot where the fire of the night previous had gleamed on both exulting and hopeless faces. They talked rapidly, and seemed deciding upon the course they should pursue; suddenly their council was brought to a violent conclusion, by the unerring aim of half a dozen invisible rifles, and as many savages, springing into the air, fell dead, while four others—two of them from the council, and two others from an ambush, who were about leaving to join the council—bounded away through the woods with an energy which indicated that each knew he who was the fleetest, stood the first chance of escape. The hindmost Indian had not gone many rods before a ball arrested his career.

Fleet Foot had his eye upon one who distanced all the others. He recoguized him by peculiar marks as the savage who had well nigh overtaken him on the two trying occasions previously mentioned, when his fleetness saved his life. The Indian had no weapon but his hunting knife. Fleet Foot dropped his unloaded rifle, and bounded swiftly in pursuit. Shouts rang after him as he sped his way. The Indian glanced behind him, saw what danger threatened him. He redoubled his energies, yet Fleet Foot gained on him, cheered as he was in the daring race by Mac, who followed with all his speed, but was barely able to keep in sight.

Away went the savage, bounding over logs, leaping ravines, and climbing steep banks, and after him came Fleet Foot, straining every muscle to its utmost tension. The hunters were all excited about the chase, and several were endeavoring to keep in sight of those who had already lost sight of Fleet Foot. There was one person who could not join in the chase, who had deeper in his fate than all the hunters—an interest which was confessed in soft whispers, when Fleet Foot was taking care of her as old Martin had directed him, in that hour of great suspense to the hunters and to the Indians, which they had passed before daylight. She would have endeavored to restrain Fleet Foot from his mad chase, but she did not know that such a race was to be run, until her lover was nearly out of her sight.

Fleet Foot was gaining faster and faster on the savage, who redoubled his energies; he took wild leaps and sudden turns, but the white man was equal to him in agility, and, at length, when there was a clear piece of woods before him, he found that he must soon be overtaken. Too brave to allow himself to be struck or taken prisoner when in flight, he turned and awaited his pursuer. Nothing daunted, Fleet Foot pressed forward. The indian had the advantage, should he rush upon him, and the hunter checked his career when within a few paces of the savage. A moment the foes glanced at each other. Three times had Fleet Foot distanced this indian, thrice to save his own life—the last time—the present one, to take the life of the red man.—Each knew the other. Now was to come a struggle severer than any previously desided between them. The indian was the larger man, and he was, perhaps, better skilled in the use of the knife.

The savage did not wait for his foe to recover from his long chase, but when his eye had run over the frame of his antagonist, and taken in the distance between them, he sprang toward him, fiercely aiming a violent blow with his knife which Fleet Foot dexterously parried, almost at the same moment giving the savage a left handed blow which staggered him. Following up his advantage, Fleet Foot made a thrust at the Indian's breast; the red man caught the arm which bore a knife swiftly toward his heart, and then followed a tight tussle—a moment, two knives gleamed in the air, then both fell upon the ground, and the indian and the hunter were each struggling to escape the other's grasp. Fleet Foot was borne to the earth, and the indian striving to keep him there, exerted himself also to the utmost to reach one of the knives. He was a stronger man than the hunter, and he had a great advantage over him, yet the hunter held so firmly, he could not reach a knife. He dare not release his hold the slightest, lest the hunter should spring to his feet.

His powerful knees were crushing the hunter's breast—his brawny hands were clenched around Fleet Foot's neck—a gleam of triumph danced in his savage eyes, which glared upon Fleet Foot's blackening face. The savage felt sure of his victim—his fleet and daring foe—this wicked joy expressed itself in every feature of his brawny countenance, and broke upon the air in a wild, fiendish laugh—that laugh was meant to be a knell for the hunter, but it nerved him to one great struggle—a struggle in which all his energy was concentrated—in which every muscle strained—every nerve stretched; he rose partly from the ground, bearing up the athletic savage, who lost the dangerous grasp, by which for a few moments he had been almost forcing the hunter's eyes from their sockets, but Fleet Foot only wasted his strength in that last struggle—he fell back upon the earth completely in the power of the infuriated savage, who was swift to perceive the surest and quickest mode of wreaking his passion, and he clenched in his right hand one of the knives which had fallen in the early part of the affray—he brandished it over his head—and from its polished blade bright reflections were a moment cast, as it hung in the air.

A low, shrill whistle might have been heard near the savage—the gleaming knife fell, but the savage fell with it, his features fixed in death, with them that fiendish exultation stamped upon them, which had nerved Fleet Foot to his last effort—that whistle which might have been heard near the savage, when he poised the knife, was from the swift passage of a rifle ball that lodged in his breast. With the report which rang after the ball, there came a shout that lifted Fleet Foot from his prostrated position.

Mac had come within rifle shot, just in time to save his friend's life.

Fleet Foot had been nearly strangled, and was much exhausted, but he soon rallied, and looking at the form of his foe, which was lying beside him, he said:

"It was a tight scuffle, Mac, by powder, and I'd been in kingdom come now if it had'nt been for you!"

"That's uncomfortably true," answered Mac. "You brag about runnin," but it liked to lost your scalp for you this time. That fellow was enough for you on a race, and a leetle too much in a fight."

Fleet Foot and Mac, on retracing their steps, were met by the other hunters—there were joyful meetings which need not be described—nor scarcely need it be told, that, when the party reached the Fort (which it did early the following day,) there were immediate preparations for a backwoods wedding, which was not long afterward celebrated in a rude, but for the period, distinguished style.

Fleet Foot figured prominently in the latter annals of Kentucky, and was subsequently known as general ———. He left a posterity which has been engaged in modern politics as warmly as was ever their brave ancestor in pioneer enterprise.

The Daily Gazette.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 25, 1854.

☞ We should have been pleased had we been able to give to our readers the opinion of Chief Justice Whiton, at length, in the case of Ableman vs. the state of Wisconsin, &c., but to do so, our limits would have compelled us to continue it through several days, thereby impairing its interest. To remedy this as far as possible, we shall publish to-morrow a carefully prepared synopsis of the whole argument, which next to the text itself, will give the best idea of it to be obtained. The high authority from which it comes, and the importance of the matter involved in this decision make it one of extraordinary interest. A law has been enacted by congress obnoxious to the people of the north in its theory, and doubly so in its practical operations, in that it contravenes one of the dearest principles of true republicanism, the right of trial by jury. To the supreme court of Wisconsin is presented the first opportunity to decide upon the constitutionality of that law, and the court pronounces it unconstitutional. The dissenters from this opinion either in point of feeling or of common sense, will be few indeed, and it starts a precedent which we hope will have its effect in other states.

☞ The Milwaukee Sentinel is troubled because the stock-holders of the Rock River Valley railroad are to have a meeting in New York, and thinks it is an inconvenient place for the meeting of the stock-holders of a Wisconsin railroad company. Perhaps if our officious neighbor had made known his wishes in the matter before the place was fixed for the meeting, the executive committee, in view of the untiring interest he has ever exhibited in the prosperity of the enterprise they have in charge, would have put themselves out to meet his his views; as it is now, we can hardly see how he is to help himself.

☞ Our telegarpic report is somewhat disjointed, in consequence of the bad working of the line between here and Milwaukee, and a portion of it was entirely lost.

☞ We hear that Cassius M. Clay is to address the citizens of Beloit to-day. Would it not be well to extend an invitation to him to visit Janesville?

☞ The Milwaukee papers state that the damage done at the collision of the two freight trains near Palmyra, the other day, will not be as great as was first supposed. The superintendent thinks that $2000 will cover the damage and complete all the repairs.

THE APPLICATION DENIED.—We stated in Friday's Sentinel that Gen. Payne, of counsel for S. M. Booth, had gone to Madison to apply to the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus. Argument in support of the application was offered by Gen. Payne. On Saturday the court overruled the application, upon the ground that the jurisdiction of the U. S. court had already attached and they therefore declided to interfere. In this decision we understand the court to have been unanimous. We presume that Mr. Booth will now give bail and stand his trial upon the indictment.—Mil. Sent.

ANOTHER RELIC.—The Detroit Tribune has brought to light a letter written by Mr. Stuart, now U. S. senator from Michigan, in 1847, in answer to one asking for a statement of his political opinions. Mr. Stuart says:

"So far as the slave states have rights under the constitution and laws of the Union, they should, in my opinion, be held inviolate. But in the organization of territorial governments, whether out of our present possessions, or such as we may hereafter acquire, a provision ought in my opinion to be incorporated prohibiting slavery."

Mr. Stuart voted for the Nebraska bill.

A FALLING MARKET.—The panic in the N. Y. money market continues. All descriptions of rail road stocks, bonds and securities are going down "by the run." How far they will fall before they stop, is difficult to guess. On Tuesday last, N. Y. Central sold down to 89, Michigan Central to 88, Illinois Central (bonds) to 69, Hudson River to 51 and N. Y. and Erie to 48! This last is a fall of 15 per cent. in three weeks. But while stocks are falling, money is growing easier. The N. Y. Mirror of the 18th says:

This unprecedented depression in stocks seems to work in exactly an opposite direction in monetary affairs. Capital is rapidly increasing, and the banks are discounting with great freedom. All good paper offering is done by those banks which are in a healthy condition. Money may now be regarded as perfectly easy. Call loans are negotiated readily at 6a7 per cent., and short paper at legal rates of interest. That of longer date—say four and six months—still commands from 10 to 12 per cent.

A SNAKE STORY.—The Fond du Lac Union is responsible for giving the following good story to the public:

STOCKBRIDGE, July 10, 1854.

To the Editor of The Fond du Lac Union.

DEAR SIR:—I wish to inform the public through you of a most remarkable case of a snake existing in the human stomach. The circumstances are as follows: The girl who is now fourteen years old, was taken sick some eight years ago, when a physician was called, who treated her with no success; soon another was called, who proved also unsuccessful; and another, and another, but without success.—The girl grew worse, and had so attained the actions of the snake that the children dare not sleep with her; she was also subject to fits, the cause arising from the snake crawling through the esophagus to the throat, which result was from the cooking of meat. She became emaciated and confined to her bed, when after the treatment of several physicians, the case was pronounced hopeless, when I accidentally heard of doctor Barnett, a young man residing in Fond du Lac, to whom I applied, and I am happy to say that after a successful treatment of five days the snake was passed by stool. The girl is fast recovering. The measurement of the snake was about eighteen inches long and one inch in diameter.

Yours, Dr. A. H. BETTS.

We the undersigned know the above facts to be true. Dr. BALDWIN, Stockbridge.
Dr. FOWLER, Manchester.

EMPHATIC.—A democrat convention was lately held at Columbus, Ind., to nominate a candidate for congress. Immense noise and confusion prevailed, but finally a motion to adjourn was carried. The result was then announced by the chairman, Col. Lee.

"Gentlemen, I declare this Convention adjourned, without a nomination, by G—d!"

An old colored man named Mitchell, of respectable character, and well known by many in this city, where he had lived more than forty years, died of cholera on Monday afternoon, at the age of one hundred and four years. His business was picking oakum, and he continued it until Saturday. The disease was brought on by eating cherries; and but for this imprudence he might have lived for some years yet, as he was remarkablhaley and rugged for his years. He had accumulated several hundred dollars in bank and owned 30 or 40 acres of land in Canada.—Sixty-two years of his life had been spent as a slave in Kentucky.—[Detroit Inquirer.

Dr. Arnold wrote poems on principle, but he never published them. Tom Moore tells of a gentleman who, when he was short of money always threatened his family with the publication of his poems. The immediate result was as much cash as he wanted.

SIGNIFICANT IF TRUE.—Statistics show that graduates of colleges contribute double their proportion of crime. Graduates in some of our state prisons are more than two to one of any other class, according to their numbers. It is a notorious fact that student life is generally one of license, that more mischief and rowdyism are enacted by young men at college than by any other class of people claiming to be respectable. The sole reason of this is the same which makes sailors and soldiers wicked, the want of that natural restraint, the presence of the other sex. Men do not stoop to be rowdies when with women they deem their equals.—Mrs. Swisshelm.

The rumor from Boston, published Monday of an over-issue of the stock of the Vermont Central railroad, is hardly credible. The stock is almost worthless in the market, being nominally held at $3 ½ per share, and cannot be sold at that. Crane, the president, must be a very industrious man if he was to make day wages by fabricating "shares" in that company. A man might as well be employed in manufacturing notes on wild-cat banks, as in issuing spurious stock of a company whose genuine shares cannot be turned into money.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

GREAT TEST OF REAPERS.—Mr. J. S. Wright, of Chicago, the proprietor of Atkin's automaton reaper, and J. H. Manny, of Rockford, have agreed to have a test trial of the merits of their respective machines. The main point to be decided is whether the self-raking apparatus is really an advantage. Manny contends that it is not. Each of the proprietors chooses an umpire, and these two a third, who are to decide the matter. The stake is $1,500, which sum the beaten party is to pay to the Illinois State Agricultural Society.

A STRANGE SUIT.—A libel suit has been tried in Scottville, New York, growing out of the following facts:

At the town election in March, a ticket was procured to be printed, and to some extent voted, on which were the names of about a dozen ladies of that place, who were designated for the various town offices. It was assumed or implied that the ladies with whom this liberty was taken, favored the woman's right movement. The ballot was styled the "Shanghae ticket," and bore for a head device a cut of a magnificent bird of Chinese origin.

The friends of the ladies not relishing this "fun," have prosecuted for libel those whom they believe to be the authors of the ticket. It is said that the affair causes no little local excitement.

WON'T OBEY.—The citizens of Rockford have been having some good times recently on account of certain ordinances which the city council of that place passed about the 1st inst., requiring all the business houses to be closed at 9, o'clock in the evening, and making it the duty of the policemen to enquire into the business of every man that was found walking in the streets after that hour; and also making it their duty, if lights were seen in houses after 9, to go in and ascertain the cause, and if no good reason could be given make complaint and fine the guilty ones. The officers undertook to enforce the ordinances on the evening of 4th., and some of the citizens becoming disgusted took great pains violate it, and for the first two or three evenings after the 4th they congregated in large numbers and fired cannon and made "night hideous with their yells" until after midnight.—The officers did not interfere, and we presume the ordinance has gone to keep company with the "black laws of Illinois."—Freeport Bulletin.

CHOLERA ON THE PLAINS.—A letter to the Providence Journal from an officer of the U. S. army, dated Camp, near Platte river, Nebraska territory, chronicles the march of a body of troops across the plains from Fort Leavenworth a distance of 300 miles, under very gloomy circumstances. Shortly after leaving the fort, the cholera got among the men, and for a while they died at the rate of two or three a day.—They were buried two in a grave, after dark, without music or service, to avoid frightening the rest of the sick. After reaching the high land the sickness ceased.

The Buffalo Republic states that DeanRichmond, Esq., the vice president of the Central railroad company has sold certain real estate to that corporation to be used for the purpoe of a depot, for the snug little sum of $250,000

New England Mutual Life Ins.,
Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,
Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.
Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.
The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.
Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.
Willard Phillips, President; B. F. Stevens, Sec'y:
CHAS. PULKER, Agent.
O. P. Robinson, Examining Physician.

29tf Agent for the Northwest.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,
LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.
All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.
We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.
Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by letting them alone.
Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.
We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.
The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.
TRAVELING AGENTS Wanted for Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Such as the Cholera calls for.—A family of Germans, who resided on the Chicago road, within fifteen minutes walk from the city hall, and had been supported at public expense for the last eight weeks, have been swept away by the cholera. First, the father was taken, then the two children, and lastly, the mother, in whose underskirt was found two thousand and five hundred dollars in gold. They have lived amid reeking filth, foul stenches, and health-destroying vapors, for weeks, and had imposed upon the public charity; but their avarice has availed them nothing; they are rotting in untimely graves of their own seeking, and the country is sole heir to their concealed wealth.—Detroit Free Press.

A Dreadful Record.—Within four years past there have been over 1200 deaths by violence at San Francisco, California, of which it is said that 150 were cases of murder. For all this ocean of crime, but one man has been convicted by law, and suffered the penalty.

Sad.—We learn that a gentleman from Chicago arrived here on Saturday from that city with three children—all that were left to him of a family consisting of a wife, five children, niece, and brother-in-law. One of the remaining children was taken sick just before reaching this place and died Sunday evening. The bereaved parent with two children is left to go on to the home of relatives near Buffalo.—Detroit Trib. 18th inst.

An Ancient Maine Law.—Among the ancient Germans some two thousand years ago, there was a tribe or nation called the Suevians, who would not suffer wine to be brought into their territory because they said it enervates the mind and unfits the body for exercise or labor. Yet these men were classed among barbarians by the Romans.

Singular and Fatal Accident.—The following accident occurred a few days ago, on the New York Central railroad:

"As the lightning train was passing the flag station, at Allen's creek, a stick of wood fell from the tender upon one of the wheels, by which it was projected with the velocity of a rifle ball in the direction of the house of the flag man, who was standing in his door. The stick, which was about four inches square, struck the man square in the head, passing nearly through it, and of course killing him instantly. The deceased's name was Fair nberg, and he leaves a wife and three or four children.

The North British Review, alluding to the stunted vegetation of the islands on the northern coast of Scotland, says the things growing there "by courtesy called trees, have a bad habit of resembling large shaving brushes, very much the worse of wear on one side."

Punch on Bonnets—Last and best.—The last number of Punch contains a pictorial guess at the distance at which ladies' bonnets will be worn from their heads at the next remove. The tendency has been further and still further rearward, and the next change, Punch thinks, will carry them off the head entirely; so he represents the next fashion by two young ladies in full dress and bare-headed, sailing along the street, with a footman walking some ten feet behind, carrying the bonnets on a waiter.

We are kindly apprised by telegraph from Washington, that "the president will send in his veto of the river and harbor bill in a few days." We hope the president will not veto the bill in advance of its passage by congress. Our last authentic intelligence from the seat of government represented the river and harbor bill to be pending in the senate, with some doubt of its fate in that body.—Buff. Com.

The Homestead Bill.—There is still hope that this measure will pass the senate. The latest despatch from Washington, July 21st, reports that the bill was ordered to be engrossed, though by what vote is not stated.

BY TELEGRAPH!

[REPORTED FOR THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.]

New York, July 24, 3 P. M.

Steamer Pacific arrived with 4 days later news from Europe. Wheat has declined 4a6 pence, flour one shilling. Consols 95.

No battle of importance has transpired yet.—Napier had withdrawn his fleets from before Constadt.

Prussia is forcing Austria with new negotiations. Strong suspicions are still entertained of the Austrians' good faith towards the Czar. Prussia sends a special envoy to Austria asking her to refrain from further steps with England and France but join her in new negotiations for peace.

Austria has countermanded the advance of of her army into Wallachia.

The Turks have crossed the Danube in considerable force.

An action occurred on ahe 5th at Gieusgero in which 160 Russians were killed and 200 wounded.

It is rumored that the combined fleets attacked Constadt on the 30th, but the further accounts say that the fleets anchored at Bard sound and that no engagement has taken place. It is reported that Russia is concentrating 300,000 men against Austria.

An engagement had occurred between the Russians and Barshabusouks in Asia. The latter lost 3000 men. 30,000 Russians have advanced from Odessa towards the Pruth. Particulars of the evacuation of the principalittes by the Russians are very contradictory.

An interview has taken place between prince Gortschakoff and the emperor of Austria. Russia has been occupying the ports on the Caspian sea. Persia has declared against the agression.

Four hundred cases of cholera are reported to have occurred in one day at St. Petersburgh.

Spain all quiet. At Madrid troops remain faithful to the Queen. The progress of the insurgents is slow.

London money market active. Consols had declined, closing at 92. The decline was owing to the complicated state of the war.

The Arabia arrived at Liverpool on the morning of the 9th.

New York, July 24th.

The North Star arrived here. The health of the isthmus continnes good.

LET THEM THAT THIRSTETH COME.

MADISON MUSIC STORE.

THE undersigned has in his Ware Room, in Bruen's Model Block, a good assortment of Piano Fortes, Melodeons, and MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS generally. Some of the best manufacturers in the Union have samples of their work there.

Chickering, Hallet & Davis, Lemuel Gilbert, Woodward & Brown, Loren Matts of Boston, and Hall & Son of New York, are all contributors to his stock of Pianos.

Prince & Co., Bishop & Child, and S. D. & H. W. Smith's Melodeons are there also. These instruments are not found in auction rooms and other places where forced sales are made to raise money for the makers, for their reputation always commands customers on the manufacturers own terms. They are all for sale at factory prices, and warranted satisfactory.

Pianos from other manufactories can be furnished if desired.

An experiencenced and disinterested agent in New York selects for the subscriber any style and priced instrument desired—in whose judgment, musical skill and taste, implicit confidence can be placed.

NEW SHEET MUSIC received weekly, sold at publishers' prices, and sent by mail free of postage.

Violins, Guitars, Tamborines,
Banjos, Accordeons, Flutes, Fifes.
Italian and other Violin Strings. Guitar and Bass Viol Strings of the best quality. Violin Bows and parts of Violins.

Bertini's, Hunter's, and other instruction books for all instruments, and many other articles in the music line, usually found in such stores, kept always on hand.

Do not go further East, until you have called at the

MADISON MUSIC STORE,

for, depend upon it, there is no use in it.

PIXLEY & KIMBALL, DEALERS IN
HARDWARE,
Wholesale & Retail,
SIGN OF THE SAW, MAIN STREET, JANESVILLE

THE SUBSCRIBERS, in returning their thanks to their numerous patrons for past favors, and soliciting a continuance of the same, would respectfully inform the people of Central and Western Wisconsin, that they have now in store, and offer for sale, at the lowest cash prices, a larger and better selected stock of

Heavy and Shelf Hardware,
Bar Iron, Steel, Nails,
Stoves, &c.,

than can be found in any other establishment in the interior of the State.

The attention of Consumers and Country Dealers is particularly invited to our immense stock of

Also to the almost endless variety of superior
Carpenter, Joiner, Cooper, Blacksmith, Wagonmaking and Farming TOOLS,
House Trimmings,
Chain and Cistern Pumps, Lead Pipe,
Cut and Wrought Nails and Spikes,
Tin Ware, Tinner's Stock,
Brittania and Japanned Ware,
Table and Pocket Cutlery,
Shears, Scissors, Razors, &c.

Our stock of

Cook and Parlor Stoves

was never larger than at present, and comprises some forty different patterns selected with great care, (having been previously fully tested in this market,) from several of the best manufactories in Troy and Albany. Having bought our Stoves on long time, without interest, and at a great discount, we are enabled to compete successfully with those who buy in small lots, "exclusively for cash," of which we will convince all who may give us a trial.

STOVE FURNITURE, STOVE PIPE, and all kinds of TIN WARE constantly on hand, or manufactured to order.

We are agents for the sale of Duryee & Forsyth's celebrated Fire Proof Safes and Platform and Counter Scales, and also for the sale of Yale's Magic Bank, Safe and Store Door Locks.

AGAIN & AGAIN
THE BOSTON STORE.
Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea," WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that
"Man wants but little here below,"
and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Annnounces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

Cotton, Grass & Linen Goods

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—
Eved French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge conscientiously their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer
DOMESTIC GLASSWARE. WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop, More in mock than mark."

BOARD.

Board may be obtained in private families, or with the Principal and family, at the lowest possible price for which board can at the time be afforded. We advertise no stated price for board, hoping that there may be a fall from the present price of board before our fall term opens.

Rooms in which students may board themselves may be obtained at varying prices, according to the quality and capacity of the rooms.

BUILDING, &c.

A commodious and elegant Academic edifice, constructed of white brick and in the best style, is in progress of erection by the Trustees of the Academy, and is to be completed for the use of the Fall Term.

Philosophical, Chemical, Physiological, Botanical, and Astronomical apparatus is to be immediately purchased. A Library is in progress of collection for the Academy.

Let every student be present from the first to the last day of each term.

The course of instruction will aim at absolute thoroughness of scholarship and mental discipline, while the health, manners and morals of students will be carefully regarded.

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c.—also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO., C. F. Simms, Cary & Gordon, Beloit; G. W. Kinsie, Magnolia; Goodrich, Davis & Co., Milton; S. A. Pond, Albany; P. D. Vaughn & Co., Union; H. Cheney, Johnstown; M. Elliot, Monroe. 43m3

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,

NEW GOODS!
$15,000 Worth of
BOOTS AND SHOES
JUST RECEIVED AT THE
Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of Mr. Buckingham, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. Buckingham, Foreman.

SKETCHES OF BORDER-LIFE.

FLEET FOOT.—A LEGEND OF KENTUCKY.

BY WILLIAM T. COGGESHALL.

[Concluded.]

A considerable length of time had elapsed while the hunter was engaged in his dangerous enterprise of reconnoitering, and of communicating the glad tidings to the prisoners and it was far advanced in the night. He had for more than an hour expected that the Indians would appoint a watch for the prisoners, and break up their council. It must have been near midnight when he was gratified with a sight of preparations on the part of the savages, for a couple of hour's repose before they started on the march of the coming day. The hunter cautiously retreated from his proximity to the camp. Two savages left the main body, and approached their prisoners—the others wrapped themselves in their blankets, and stretched themselves upon the ground to sleep. The savages had secured their prisoners by tying their hands tightly behind large trees. They stood in this painful position several yards distant from each other.—The two warriors left to guard, manifested no disposition to allow them any position more favorable to rest or repose. Fleet Foot was a thoughtful observer of this neglect and it did not auger well in his mind for the safety of the prisoners on the morrow. He was impressed that the council which had just broken up, had decided on bloody deeds. He dare not act alone under such trying circumstances, and he determined to see Mac. It would have been no easy task for an inexperienced woodsman to have found his companion under such trying circumstances, but Fleet Foot had calculated well what were his chances of return to his friend, and he found but little difficulty in tracing his way to the vicinity where he left Mac. A signal well understood between the hunters, and not calculated to alarm the savages, had they heard it, was given and answered, and in a few minutes the brother and lover were earnestly consulting what was to be done to rescue Kate and her fellow prisoners.

"There are ten or a dozen of 'em," said Fleet Foot, "I can't exactly tell which, but any how, there's too many of 'em for us to fight, by powder; Ingins or no Ingins, them wimen shall be out of their clutches afore the varmints leave this camp, or I'm a dead hunter."

"That's my mind to a har," answered Mac, grasping Fleet Foot's hand.

"It's tarnal queer old Martin haint come up, but may be he has seen this fire, just as we did, and there's half a dozen of other fellows sneakin' about here now."

"May be," said Mac, "but we can't find 'em, and darsent make any signal or we'll have all them Ingins up in a minit, and no tellin' what might happen. We must calculate without 'em, and if we get into a fight and old Martin's about here, we'll have him on our side quick enough."

"Well," returned Fleet Foot, "there's only one way to do it—that fire's getting low—it wouldn't be queer if them Ingins on the watch went to sleep, 'cause they know the prisoners can't get away; and I'm certain they don't suspect anybody's on the track of 'em. Ef they did they wouldn't keep up sich a fire. Now, you follow me, and we'll go over there and watch the varmints, and whenever they shut their eyes, you take one and I'll take the other so quick he shan't give even a grunt, and then it'll be an easy matter to cut the prisoners loose."

Mac agreed to this arrangement. Daylight was now drawing near. Whatever plans were calculated on, must be executed without delay. The hunters knew if they succeeded in releasing the prisoners, as soon as the Indians discovered their loss, they would put forth every exertion, and exercise all their cunning to retake them; but with all this hazard before them, they resolved to release them if it was in their power, and trust to luck, shrewdness, and the probability of assistance from Martin's party. They were convinced that one or more of the prisoners would be killed on the morrow, and bravely and generously they thought it was worth while to risk their two lives to save three, one of which was particularly valuable to both hunters, but peculiarly so to one of them.

When the two Indian guards were growing weary and sleepy, they had no suspicions that two hunters with drawn knives were ready, if they slumbered, to make that their last sleep.

Fleet Foot began to fear that daylight would dawn before the savages nodded, and that the others would awaken and all would be lost.—Every moment increased the danger and narrowed the probabilities of rescue and escape. At length he brought himself to believe that the moment for action had arrived. He gave the concerted signal, and approached his victims who stood erect against a tree. He was successful, and drove his knife to the heart of the savage, who may have been dreaming, perhaps, of a wigwam far away, where children, of whom he was proud, awaited his return. The savage fell in his last sleep, heavily to the ground. That one which Mac was to have attacked, was startled by the fall. He was sitting upon the ground, nodding, but was not sound asleep. He sprang to his feet when Mac was not yet near enough to strike him. In an instant he would have been away from the dim light of the fire and out of sight of the hunter, but Mac rushed upon and grappled with him. Fleet Foot sprang to cut the bands which confined the prisoners. Meantime Mac struggled with the savage; both were powerful men—for a moment the savage was confused, and did not employ his strength and agility as he might have done under ordinary circumstances—of this confusion the hunter took advantage, and was quick enough to plunge his knife into the red man's breast—he fell with a cry which aroused his fellow warriors, who slumbered in confidence that his watchfulness protected them.

Ten Indians were on their feet, with their rifles in their hands, before the death cry of their guard had died in the woods. The fire, which they had left brightly burning, had nearly gone out. The brands were scattered. They could neither see their prisoners nor any foes. They did not rush forward to ascertain the fate of their sentinels, nor did they flee hastily from the spot where they had been sleeping. Each individual quietly skulked around a tree. No foe could see them. Not one of them could either see or hear a foe, but nevertheless there were very dangerous foes quite near them.

When Fleet Foot rushed to release the prisoners, he found the good work accomplished. A rough hand grasped his arm, and a voice which he knew well, said:

"We've been watchin' the varmints most all night. They're skeered now, but they won't run nor show themselves yet awhile; our boys understands. We must lay low with our guns cocked till it's day, and we'll all git a blaze at 'em. How many?"

"Ten I guess," said Fleet Foot.

"Take care o' this woman;" said old Martin.

It was Kate. Fleet Foot said not a word; but put his arm around the girl as if he had a special right to protect her.

There was no wind stirring. It was as quiet in the deep woods, as if there had been no Indian camp—no desperate adventure—no struggle for a scene of death. Softly the morning light began to steal through the dense foliage—it searched its way amo g the green leaves, and slowly dissipated the gloom which hung tenaciously around the trunks of the trees—among the low bushes, and in the wooded ravines. The fox went snuffing to his hole—the rabbit hopped timidly from one moss bed or grass tuft to another—the birds left their nests and sang sweetly on twigs, which overhung fallen leaves stained with blood—the squirrel left its nest, and sat securely chippering on boughs that bent toward ashes, which were the result of a flame that had given light for the planning and executing of bold and daring designs.

Many an animal was, no doubt, watching in that fresh light of morning for an opportunity to secure such prey as he was wont to satisfy his hunger upon; and there were other eyes watching an opportunity to satisfy a passion, which will lead men often to more desperate deeds than hunger. The quiet, beautiful scene, a lover of nature would have rejoiced to delight in, was to be disturbed by other conflicts than those between cruel animals and their victims.

It was scarcely broad daylight, when one of the Indian warriors thought he saw a movement in a clump of bushes, a dozen rods or more distant from him. He watched, intently. He was not mistaken; other Indians had their suspicions excited; knowing glances were exchanged. The suspicious bush became more attractive to the savages. Presently, what was apparently a woman's bonnet, was to be seen cautiously elevated nearly to the top of the bushes, slowly turning around as if there were foes, or suspicious sign of foes in view. A rifle report rang through the forest, and the exposed bonnet disappeared. Again the woods was free from unusual sounds. It was not long before Indians skulked from one tree to another. They were at first very cautious, but they saw nothing to awaken suspicion, and they became more bold. Now one left his ambuscade, then another. It was not long before eight warriors stood near the spot where the fire of the night previous had gleamed on both exulting and hopeless faces. They talked rapidly, and seemed deciding upon the course they should pursue; suddenly their council was brought to a violent conclusion, by the unerring aim of half a dozen invisible rifles, and as many savages, springing into the air, fell dead, while four others—two of them from the council, and two others from an ambush, who were about leaving to join the council—bounded away through the woods with an energy which indicated that each knew he who was the fleetest, stood the first chance of escape. The hindmost Indian had not gone many rods before a ball arrested his career.

Fleet Foot had his eye upon one who distanced all the others. He recognized him by peculiar marks as the savage who had well nigh overtaken him on the two trying occasions previously mentioned, when his fleetness saved his life. The Indian had no weapon but his hunting knife. Fleet Foot dropped his unloaded rifle, and bounded swiftly in pursuit. Shouts rang after him as he sped his way. The Indian glanced behind him, saw what danger threatened him. He redoubled his energies, yet Fleet Foot gained on him, cheered as he was in the daring race by Mac, who followed with all his speed, but was barely able to keep in sight.

Away went the savage, bounding over logs, leaping ravines, and climbing steep banks, and after him came Fleet Foot, straining every muscle to its utmost tension. The hunters were all excited about the chase, and several were endeavoring to keep in sight of those who had already lost sight of Fleet Foot. There was one person who could not join in the chase, who had deeper in his fate than all the hunters—an interest which was confessed in soft whispers, when Fleet Foot was taking care of her as old Martin had directed him, in that hour of great suspense to the hunters and to the Indians, which they had passed before daylight. She would have endeavored to restrain Fleet Foot from his mad chase, but she did not know that such a race was to be run, until her lover was nearly out of her sight.

Fleet Foot was gaining faster and faster on the savage, who redoubled his energies; he took wild leaps and sudden turns, but the white man was equal to him in agility, and, at length, when there was a clear piece of woods before him, he found that he must soon be overtaken. Too brave to allow himself to be struck or taken prisoner when in flight, he turned and awaited his pursuer. Nothing daunted, Fleet Foot pressed forward. The indian had the advantage, should he rush upon him, and the hunter checked his career when within a few paces of the savage. A moment the foes glanced at each other. Three times had Fleet Foot distanced this indian, thrice to save his own life—the last time—the present one, to take the life of the red man.—Each knew the other. Now was to come a struggle severer than any previously decided between them. The indian was the larger man, and he was, perhaps, better skilled in the use of the knife.

The savage did not wait for his foe to recover from his long chase, but when his eye had run over the frame of his antagonist, and taken in the distance between them, he sprang toward him, fiercely aiming a violent blow with his knife which Fleet Foot dexterously parried, almost at the same moment giving the savage a left handed blow which staggered him. Following up his advantage, Fleet Foot made a thrust at the Indian's breast; the red man caught the arm which bore a knife swiftly toward his heart, and then followed a tight tussle—a moment, two knives gleamed in the air, then both fell upon the ground, and the indian and the hunter were each struggling to escape the other's grasp. Fleet Foot was borne to the earth, and the indian striving to keep him there, exerted himself also to the utmost to reach one of the knives. He was a stronger man than the hunter, and he had a great advantage over him, yet the hunter held so firmly, he could not reach a knife. He dare not release his hold the slightest, lest the hunter should spring to his feet.

His powerful knees were crushing the hunter's breast—his brawny hands were clenched around Fleet Foot's neck—a gleam of triumph danced in his savage eyes, which glared upon Fleet Foot's blackening face. The savage felt sure of his victim—his fleet and daring foe—this wicked joy expressed itself in every feature of his brawny countenance, and broke upon the air in a wild, fiendish laugh—that laugh was meant to be a knell for the hunter, but it nerved him to one great struggle—a struggle in which all his energy was concentrated—in which every muscle strained—every nerve stretched; he rose partly from the ground, bearing up the athletic savage, who lost the dangerous grasp, by which for a few moments he had been almost forcing the hunter's eyes from their sockets, but Fleet Foot only wasted his strength in that last struggle—he fell back upon the earth completely in the power of the infuriated savage, who was swift to perceive the surest and quickest mode of wreaking his passion, and he clenched in his right hand one of the knives which had fallen in the early part of the affray—he brandished it over his head—and from its polished blade bright reflections were a moment cast, as it hung in the air.

A low, shrill whistle might have been heard near the savage—the gleaming knife fell, but the savage fell with it, his features fixed in death, with them that fiendish exultation stamped upon them, which had nerved Fleet Foot to his last effort—that whistle which might have been heard near the savage, when he poised the knife, was from the swift passage of a rifle ball that lodged in his breast. With the report which rang after the ball, there came a shout that lifted Fleet Foot from his prostrated position.

Mac had come within rifle shot, just in time to save his friend's life.

Fleet Foot had been nearly strangled, and was much exhausted, but he soon rallied, and looking at the form of his foe, which was lying beside him, he said:

"It was a tight scuffle, Mac, by powder, and I'd been in kingdom come now if it had'nt been for you!"

"That's uncomfortably true," answered Mac. "You brag about runnin," but it liked to lost your scalp for you this time. That fellow was enough for you on a race, and a leetle too much in a fight."

Fleet Foot and Mac, on retracing their steps, were met by the other hunters—there were joyful meetings which need not be described—nor scarcely need it be told, that, when the party reached the Fort (which it did early the following day,) there were immediate preparations for a backwoods wedding, which was not long afterward celebrated in a rude, but for the period, distinguished style.

Fleet Foot figured prominently in the latter annals of Kentucky, and was subsequently known as general ———. He left a posterity which has been engaged in modern politics as warmly as was ever their brave ancestor in pioneer enterprise.

The Daily Gazette.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 25, 1854.

☞ We should have been pleased had we been able to give to our readers the opinion of Chief Justice Whiton, at length, in the case of Ableman vs. the state of Wisconsin, &c., but to do so, our limits would have compelled us to continue it through several days, thereby impairing its interest. To remedy this as far as possible, we shall publish to-morrow a carefully prepared synopsis of the whole argument, which next to the text itself, will give the best idea of it to be obtained. The high authority from which it comes, and the importance of the matter involved in this decision make it one of extraordinary interest. A law has been enacted by congress obnoxious to the people of the north in its theory, and doubly so in its practical operations, in that it contravenes one of the dearest principles of true republicanism, the right of trial by jury. To the supreme court of Wisconsin is presented the first opportunity to decide upon the constitutionality of that law, and the court pronounces it unconstitutional. The dissenters from this opinion either in point of feeling or of common sense, will be few indeed, and it starts a precedent which we hope will have its effect in other states.

☞ The Milwaukee Sentinel is troubled because the stock-holders of the Rock River Valley railroad are to have a meeting in New York, and thinks it is an inconvenient place for the meeting of the stock-holders of a Wisconsin railroad company. Perhaps if our officious neighbor had made known his wishes in the matter before the place was fixed for the meeting, the executive committee, in view of the untiring interest he has ever exhibited in the prosperity of the enterprise they have in charge, would have put themselves out to meet his his views; as it is now, we can hardly see how he is to help himself.

☞ Our telegarpic report is somewhat disjointed, in consequence of the bad working of the line between here and Milwaukee, and a portion of it was entirely lost.

☞ We hear that Cassius M. Clay is to address the citizens of Beloit to-day. Would it not be well to extend an invitation to him to visit Janesville?

☞ The Milwaukee papers state that the damage done at the collision of the two freight trains near Palmyra, the other day, will not be as great as was first supposed. The superintendent thinks that $2000 will cover the damage and complete all the repairs.

THE APPLICATION DENIED.—We stated in Friday's Sentinel that Gen. Payne, of counsel for S. M. Booth, had gone to Madison to apply to the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus. Argument in support of the application was offered by Gen. Payne. On Saturday the court overruled the application, upon the ground that the jurisdiction of the U. S. court had already attached and they therefore declided to interfere. In this decision we understand the court to have been unanimous. We presume that Mr. Booth will now give bail and stand his trial upon the indictment.—Mil. Sent.

ANOTHER RELIC.—The Detroit Tribune has brought to light a letter written by Mr. Stuart, now U. S. senator from Michigan, in 1847, in answer to one asking for a statement of his political opinions. Mr. Stuart says:

"So far as the slave states have rights under the constitution and laws of the Union, they should, in my opinion, be held inviolate. But in the organization of territorial governments, whether out of our present possessions, or such as we may hereafter acquire, a provision ought in my opinion to be incorporated prohibiting slavery."

Mr. Stuart voted for the Nebraska bill.

A FALLING MARKET.—The panic in the N. Y. money market continues. All descriptions of rail road stocks, bonds and securities are going down "by the run." How far they will fall before they stop, is difficult to guess. On Tuesday last, N. Y. Central sold down to 89, Michigan Central to 88, Illinois Central (bonds) to 89, Hudson River to 51 and N. Y. and Erie to 48! This last is a fall of 15 per cent. in three weeks. But while stocks are falling, money is growing easier. The N. Y. Mirror of the 18th says:

This unprecedented depression in stocks seems to work in exactly an opposite direction in monetary affairs. Capital is rapidly increasing, and the banks are discounting with great freedom. All good paper offering is done by those banks which are in a healthy condition. Money may now be regarded as perfectly easy. Call loans are negotiated readily at 6a7 per cent., and short paper at legal rates of interest. That of longer date—say four and six months—still commands from 10 to 12 per cent.

A SNAKE STORY.—The Fond du Lac Union is responsible for giving the following good story to the public:

STOCKBRIDGE, July 10, 1854.

To the Editor of The Fond du Lac Union.

DEAR SIR:—I wish to inform the public through you of a most remarkable case of a snake existing in the human stomach. The circumstances are as follows: The girl who is now fourteen years old, was taken sick some eight years ago, when a physician was called, who treated her with no success; soon another was called, who proved also unsuccessful; and another, and another, but without success.—The girl grew worse, and had so attained the actions of the snake that the children dare not sleep with her; she was also subject to fits, the cause arising from the snake crawling through the esophagus to the throat, which result was from the cooking of meat. She became emaciated and confined to her bed, when after the treatment of several physicians, the case was pronounced hopeless, when I accidentally heard of doctor Barnett, a young man residing in Fond du Lac, to whom I applied, and I am happy to say that after a successful treatment of five days the snake was passed by stool. The girl is fast recovering. The measurement of the snake was about eighteen inches long and one inch in diameter.

Yours, Dr. A. H. BETTS.

We the undersigned know the above facts to be true. Dr. BALDWIN, Stockbridge.
Dr. FOWLER, Manchester.

EMPHATIC.—A democrat convention was lately held at Columbus, Ind., to nominate a candidate for congress. Immense noise and confusion prevailed, but finally a motion to adjourn was carried. The result was then announced by the chairman, Col. Lee.

"Gentlemen, I declare this Convention adjourned, without a nomination, by G—d!"

An old colored man named Mitchell, of respectable character, and well known by many in this city, where he had lived more than forty years, died of cholera on Monday afternoon, at the age of one hundred and four years. His business was picking oakum, and he continued it until Saturday. The disease was brought on by eating cherries; and but for this imprudence he might have lived for some years yet, as he was remarkablhaley and rugged for his years. He had accumulated several hundred dollars in bank and owned 30 or 40 acres of land in Canada.—Sixty-two years of his life had been spent as a slave in Kentucky.—[Detroit Inquirer.

Dr. Arnold wrote poems on principle, but he never published them. Tom Moore tells of a gentleman who, when he was short of money always threatened his family with the publication of his poems. The immediate result was as much cash as he wanted.

SIGNIFICANT IF TRUE.—Statistics show that graduates of colleges contribute double their proportion of crime. Graduates in some of our state prisons are more than two to one of any other class, according to their numbers. It is a notorious fact that student life is generally one of license, that more mischief and rowdyism are enacted by young men at college than by any other class of people claiming to be respectable. The sole reason of this is the same which makes sailors and soldiers wicked, the want of that natural restraint, the presence of the other sex. Men do not stoop to be rowdies when with women they deem their equals.—Mrs. Swisshelm.

The rumor from Boston, published Monday of an over-issue of the stock of the Vermont Central railroad, is hardly credible. The stock is almost worthless in the market, being nominally held at $3 ½ per share, and cannot be sold at that. Crane, the president, must be a very industrious man if he was to make day wages by fabricating "shares" in that company. A man might as well be employed in manufacturing notes on wild-cat banks, as in issuing spurious stock of a company whose genuine shares cannot be turned into money.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

GREAT TEST OF REAPERS.—Mr. J. S. Wright, of Chicago, the proprietor of Atkin's automaton reaper, and J. H. Manny, of Rockford, have agreed to have a test trial of the merits of their respective machines. The main point to be decided is whether the self-raking apparatus is really an advantage. Manny contends that it is not. Each of the proprietors chooses an umpire, and these two a third, who are to decide the matter. The stake is $1,500, which sum the beaten party is to pay to the Illinois State Agricultural Society.

A STRANGE SUIT.—A libel suit has been tried in Scottville, New York, growing out of the following facts:

At the town election in March, a ticket was procured to be printed, and to some extent voted, on which were the names of about a dozen ladies of that place, who were designated for the various town offices. It was assumed or implied that the ladies with whom this liberty was taken, favored the woman's right movement. The ballot was styled the "Shanghae ticket," and bore for a head device a cut of a magnificent bird of Chinese origin.

The friends of the ladies not relishing this "fun," have prosecuted for libel those whom they believe to be the authors of the ticket. It is said that the affair causes no little local excitement.

WON'T OBEY.—The citizens of Rockford have been having some good times recently on account of certain ordinances which the city council of that place passed about the 1st inst., requiring all the business houses to be closed at 9, o'clock in the evening, and making it the duty of the policemen to enquire into the business of every man that was found walking in the streets after that hour; and also making it their duty, if lights were seen in houses after 9, to go in and ascertain the cause, and if no good reason could be given make complaint and fine the guilty ones. The officers undertook to enforce the ordinances on the evening of 4th., and some of the citizens becoming disgusted took great pains violate it, and for the first two or three evenings after the 4th they congregated in large numbers and fired cannon and made "night hideous with their yells" until after midnight.—The officers did not interfere, and we presume the ordinance has gone to keep company with the "black laws of Illinois."—Freeport Bulletin.

CHOLERA ON THE PLAINS.—A letter to the Providence Journal from an officer of the U. S. army, dated Camp, near Platte river, Nebraska territory, chronicles the march of a body of troops across the plains from Fort Leavenworth a distance of 300 miles, under very gloomy circumstances. Shortly after leaving the fort, the cholera got among the men, and for a while they died at the rate of two or three a day.—They were buried two in a grave, after dark, without music or service, to avoid frightening the rest of the sick. After reaching the high land the sickness ceased.

The Buffalo Republic states that Dean Richmond, Esq., the vice president of the Central railroad company has sold certain real estate to that corporation to be used for the purpose of a depot, for the snug little sum of $250,000

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

IRA P. BALLOU.

The Spring & Summer Campaign of 1854 IS NOW OPEN.

A NEW WAR AGAINST HIGH PRICES OF MERCHANDISE HAS JUST BROKEN OUT, AT

THE LITTLE REGULATOR OF

The Dry Goods Trade.

IMMENSE DAILY ARRIVALS!

Cash System Triumphant!

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT, SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Gro de Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Bareges, Barege Delaines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found

3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5½ c., sold at other stores at 1s. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
4,000 do. 1s., sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s., sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼c., sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1600 Parasols Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast.

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS,
Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

A GREAT MISTAKE.

J. B. CROSBY & Co.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down at which will crowd their store with customers and ensure large and heavy sales, thus making room for goods yet to arrive. Ladies and Gentlemen,

A TRIFLE ABOVE COST,

THIS IS NO HUMBUG,

but a REALITY, and to be convinced of this fact personally, look through their immense stock, see the amount of goods they have in store, (and but a portion of their stock has yet arrived,) enquire the price, and you will acknowledge that we will sell you

GOOD GOODS, at nearly half the Price,

that other Merchants charge. We shall not mention a few leading articles and their prices, and sell the balance of stock at higher rates, as other Merchants do, but shall mark our whole stock at a small regular profit, and adhere strictly to the

ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

Our stock consists of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c. &c., to which we invite especial attention, as to quality and price, as we are determined that

Every Sale shall give Full and Perfect Satisfaction.

Auction or shop worn goods which are not cheap a any price we do not deal in; but buy only the best grade of goods, and of the latest styles. We are the only House in Janesville that do a strictly cash business, and buying of importers and wholly for cash, we

CAN AND WILL SELL

CHEAPER AND BETTER GOODS,

than those who buy small stocks on time, and sell them the same way.

To Country Merchants,

We would say, that we will sell you goods at New York and Boston prices, adding freight. You will find us at the old stand of J. B. CROSBY, two doors above the Post Office.

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

|---|---|
| Rheumatism, | Nervous Headache, |
| Painful and Swelled Joints, | Palpitation of the Heart, |
| Sciataca, | General Debility, |
| Paralysis, | Female Diseases, |
| Spinal Disease, | Neuralgia of the Face, |
| Deafness, Blindness, | Rheumatic Pains of the |
| Dyspepsia, Indigestion, | Chest |

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much.) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c. J. STEINERT, General Agent,

SKETCHES OF BORDER-LIFE.

FLEET FOOT.—A LEGEND OF KENTUCKY.

BY WILLIAM T. COGGESHALL.

[Concluded.]

A considerable length of time had elapsed while the hunter was engaged in his dangerous enterprise of reconnoitering, and of communicating the glad tidings to the prisoners and it was far advanced in the night. He had for more than an hour expected that the Indians would appoint a watch for the prisoners, and break up their council. It must have been near midnight when he was gratified with a sight of preparations on the part of the savages, for a couple of hour's repose before they started on the march of the coming day. The hunter cautiously retreated from his proximity to the camp. Two savages left the main body, and approached their prisoners—the others wrapped themselves in their blankets, and stretched themselves upon the ground to sleep. The savages had secured their prisoners by tying their hands tightly behind large trees. They stood in this painful position several yards distant from each other.—The two warriors left to guard, manifested no disposition to allow them any position more favorable to rest or repose. Fleet Foot was a thoughtful observer of this neglect and it did not auger well in his mind for the safety of the prisoners on the morrow. He was impressed that the council which had just broken up, had decided on bloody deeds. He dare not act alone under such trying circumstances, and he determined to see Mac. It would have been no easy task for an inexperienced woodsman to have found his companion under such trying circumstances, but Fleet Foot had calculated well what were his chances of return to his friend, and he found but little difficulty in tracing his way to the vicinity where he left Mac. A signal well understood between the hunters, and not calculated to alarm the savages, had they heard it, was given and answered, and in a few minutes the brother and lover were earnestly consulting what was to be done to rescue Kate and her fellow prisoners.

"There are ten or a dozen of 'em," said Fleet Foot, "I can't exactly tell which, but any how, there's too many of 'em for us to fight, by powder; Ingins or no Ingins, them winnen shall be out of their clutches afore the varmints leave this camp, or I'm a dead hunter."

"That's my mind to a har," answered Mac, grasping Fleet Foot's hand.

"It's tarnal queer old Martin haint come up, but may be he has seen this fire, just as we did, and there's half a dozen of other fellows sneakin' about here now."

"May be," said Mac, "but we can't find 'em, and darsent make any signal or we'll have all them Ingins up in a minit, and no tellin' what might happen. We must calculate without 'em, and if we get into a fight and old Martin's about here, we'll have him on our side quick enough."

"Well," returned Fleet Foot, "there's only one way to do it—that fire's getting low—it wouldn't be queer if them Ingins on the watch went to sleep, 'cause they know the prisoners can't get away; and I'm certain they don't suspect anybody's on the track of 'em. If they did they wouldn't keep up sich a fire. Now, you follow me, and we'll go over there and watch the varmints, and whenever they shut their eyes, you take one and I'll take the other so quick he shan't give even a grunt, and then it'll be an easy matter to cut the prisoners loose."

Mac agreed to this arrangement. Daylight was now drawing near. Whatever plans were calculated on, must be executed without delay. The hunters knew if they succeeded in releasing the prisoners, as soon as the Indians discovered their loss, they would put forth every exertion, and exercise all their cunning to retake them; but with all this hazard before them, they resolved to release them if it was in their power, and trust to luck, shrewdness, and the probability of assistance from Martin's party. They were convinced that one or more of the prisoners would be killed on the morrow, and bravely and generously they thought it was worth while to risk their two lives to save three, one of which was particularly valuable to both hunters, but peculiarly so to one of them.

When the two Indian guards were growing weary and sleepy, they had no suspicions that two hunters with drawn knives were ready, if they slumbered, to make that their last sleep.

Fleet Foot began to fear that daylight would dawn before the savages nodded, and that the others would awaken and all would be lost.—Every moment increased the danger and narrowed the probabilities of rescue and escape. At length he brought himself to believe that the moment for action had arrived. He gave the concerted signal, and approached his victims who stood erect against a tree. He was successful, and drove his knife to the heart of the savage, who may have been dreaming, perhaps, of a wigwam far away, where children, of whom he was proud, awaited his return. The savage fell in his last sleep, heavily to the ground. That one which Mac was to have attacked, was startled by the fall. He was sitting upon the ground, nodding, but was not sound asleep. He sprang to his feet when Mac was not yet near enough to strike him. In an instant he would have been away from the dim light of the fire and out of sight of the hunter, but Mac rushed upon and grappled with him. Fleet Foot sprang to cut the bands which confined the prisoners. Meantime Mac struggled with the savage; both were powerful men—for a moment the savage was confused, and did not employ his strength and agility as he might have done under ordinary circumstances—of this confusion the hunter took advantage, and was quick enough to plunge his knife into the red man's breast—he fell with a cry which aroused his fellow warriors, who slumbered in confidence that his watchfulness protected them.

Ten Indians were on their feet, with their rifles in their hands, before the death cry of their guard had died in the woods. The fire, which they had left brightly burning, had nearly gone out. The brands were scattered. They could neither see their prisoners nor any foes. They did not rush forward to ascertain the fate of their sentinels, nor did they flee hastily from the spot where they had been sleeping. Each individual quietly skulked around a tree. No foe could see them. Not one of them could either see or hear a foe, but nevertheless there were very dangerous foes quite near them.

When Fleet Foot rushed to release the prisoners, he found the good work accomplished. A rough hand grasped his arm, and a voice which he knew well, said:

"We've been watchin' the varmints most all night. They're skeered now, but they won't run nor show themselves yet awhile; our boys understands. We must lay low with our guns cocked till its day, and we'll all git a blaze at 'em. How many?"

"Ten I guess," said Fleet Foot.

"Take care o' this woman;" said old Martin.

It was Kate. Fleet Foot said not a word; but put his arm around the girl as if he had a special right to protect her.

There was no wind stirring. It was as quiet in the deep woods, as if there had been no Indian camp—no desperate adventure—no struggle the scene of death. Softly the morning light began to steal through the dense foliage—it searched its way among the green leaves, and slowly dissipated the gloom which hung tenaciously around the trunks of the trees—among the low bushes, and in the wooded ravines. The fox went snuffling to his hole—the rabbit hopped timidly from one moss bed or grass tuft to another—the birds left their nests and sang sweetly on twigs, which overhung fallen leaves stained with blood—the squirrel left its nest, and sat scarcely chippering on boughs that bent toward ashes, which were the result of a flame that had given light for the planning and executing of bold and daring designs.

Many an animal was, no doubt, watching in that fresh light of morning for an opportunity to secure such prey as he was wont to satisfy his hunger upon; and there were other eyes watching an opportunity to satisfy a passion, which will lead men often to more desperate deeds than hunger. The quiet, beautiful scene, a lover of nature would have rejoiced to delight in, was to be disturbed by other conflicts than those between cruel animals and their victims.

It was scarcely broad daylight, when one of the Indian warriors thought he saw a movement in a clump of bushes, a dozen rods or more distant from him. He watched, intently. He was not mistaken; other Indians had their suspicions excited; knowing glances were exchanged. The suspicious bush became more attractive to the savages. Presently, what was apparently a woman's bonnet, was to be seen cautiously elevated nearly to the top of the bushes, slowly turning around as if there were foes, or suspicious sign of foes in view. A rifle report rang through the forest, and the exposed bonnet disappeared. Again the woods was free from unusual sounds. It was not long before Indians skulked from one tree to another. They were at first very cautious, but they saw nothing to awaken suspicion, and they became more bold. Now one left his ambuscade, then another. It was not long before eight warriors stood near the spot where the fire of the night previous had gleamed on both exulting and hopeless faces. They talked rapidly, and seemed deciding upon the course they should pursue; suddenly their council was brought to a violent conclusion, by the unerring aim of half a dozen invisible rifles, and as many savages, springing into the air, fell dead, while four others—two of them from the council, and two others from an ambush, who were about leaving to join the council—bounded away through the woods with an energy which indicated that each knew he who was the fleetest, stood the first chance of escape. The hindmost Indian had not gone many rods before a ball arrested his career.

Fleet Foot had his eye upon one who distanced all the others. He recognized him by peculiar marks as the savage who had well nigh overtaken him on the two trying occasions previously mentioned, when his fleetness saved his life. The Indian had no weapon but his hunting knife. Fleet Foot dropped his unloaded rifle, and bounded swiftly in pursuit. Shouts rang after him as he sped his way. The Indian glanced behind him, saw what danger threatened him. He redoubled his energies, yet Fleet Foot gained on him, cheered as he was in the daring race by Mac, who followed with all his speed, but was barely able to keep in sight.

Away went the savage, bounding over logs, leaping ravines, and climbing steep banks, and after him came Fleet Foot, straining every muscle to its utmost tension. The hunters were all excited about the chase, and several were endeavoring to keep in sight of those who had already lost sight of Fleet Foot. There was one person who could not join in the chase, who had deeper in his fate than all the hunters—an interest which was confessed in soft whispers, when Fleet Foot was taking care of her as old Martin had directed him, in that hour of great suspense to the hunters and to the Indians, which they had passed before daylight. She would have endeavored to restrain Fleet Foot from his mad chase, but she did not know that such a race was to be run, until her lover was nearly out of her sight.

Fleet Foot was gaining faster and faster on the savage, who redoubled his energies; he took wild leaps and sudden turns, but the white man was equal to him in agility, and, at length, when there was a clear piece of woods before him, he found that he must soon be overtaken. Too brave to allow himself to be struck or taken prisoner when in flight, he turned and awaited his pursuer. Nothing daunted, Fleet Foot pressed forward. The Indian had the advantage, should he rush upon him, and the hunter checked his career when within a few paces of the savage. A moment the foes glanced at each other. Three times had Fleet Foot distanced this indian, thrice to save his own life—the last time—the present one, to take the life of the red man.—Each knew the other. Now was to come a struggle severer than any previously decided between them. The indian was the larger man, and he was, perhaps, better skilled in the use of the knife.

The savage did not wait for his foe to recover from his long chase, but when his eye had run over the frame of his antagonist, and taken in the distance between them, he sprang toward him, fiercely aiming a violent blow with his knife which Fleet Foot dexterously parried, almost at the same moment giving the savage a left handed blow which staggered him. Following up his advantage, Fleet Foot made a thrust at the Indian's breast; the red man caught the arm which bore a knife swiftly toward his heart, and then followed a tight tussle—a moment, two knives gleamed in the air, then both fell upon the ground, and the indian and the hunter were each struggling to escape the other's grasp. Fleet Foot was borne to the earth, and the indian striving to keep him there, exerted himself also to the utmost to reach one of the knives. He was a stronger man than the hunter, and he had a great advantage over him, yet the hunter held so firmly, he could not reach a knife. He dare not release his hold the slightest, lest the hunter should spring to his feet.

His powerful knees were crushing the hunter's breast—his brawny hands were clenched around Fleet Foot's neck—a gleam of triumph danced in his savage eyes, which glared upon Fleet Foot's blackening face. The savage felt sure of his victim—his fleet and daring foe—this wicked joy expressed itself in every feature of his brawny countenance, and broke upon the air in a wild, fiendish laugh—that laugh was meant to be a knell for the hunter, but it nerved him to one great struggle—a struggle in which all his energy was concentrated—in which every muscle strained—every nerve stretched; he rose partly from the ground, bearing up the athletic savage, who lost the dangerous grasp, by which for a few moments he had been almost forcing the hunter's eyes from their sockets, but Fleet Foot only wasted his strength in that last struggle—he fell back upon the earth completely in the power of the infuriated savage, who was swift to perceive the surest and quickest mode of wreaking his passion, and he clenched in his right hand one of the knives which had fallen in the early part of the affray—he brandished it over his head—and from its polished blade bright reflections were a moment cast, as it hung in the air.

A low, shrill whistle might have been heard near the savage—the gleaming knife fell, but the savage fell with it, his features fixed in death, with them that fiendish exultation stamped upon them, which had nerved Fleet Foot to his last effort—that whistle which might have been heard near the savage, when he poised the knife, was from the swift passage of a rifle ball that lodged in his breast. With the report which rang after the ball, there came a shout that lifted Fleet Foot from his prostrated position.

Mac had come within rifle shot, just in time to save his friend's life.

Fleet Foot had been nearly strangled, and was much exhausted, but he soon rallied, and looking at the form of his foe, which was lying beside him, he said:

"It was a tight scuffle, Mac, by powder, and I'd been in kingdom come now if it had'nt been for you!"

"That's uncomfortably true," answered Mac. "You brag about runnin," but it liked to lost your scalp for you this time. That fellow was enough for you on a race, and a leetle too much in a fight."

Fleet Foot and Mac, on retracing their steps, were met by the other hunters—there were joyful meetings which need not be described—nor scarcely need it be told, that, when the party reached the Fort (which it did early the following day,) there were immediate preparations for a backwoods wedding, which was not long afterward celebrated in a rude, but for the period, distinguished style.

Fleet Foot figured prominently in the latter annals of Kentucky, and was subsequently known as general ———. He left a posterity which has been engaged in modern politics as warmly as was ever their brave ancestor in pioneer enterprise.

The Daily Gazette.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 25, 1854.

☞ We should have been pleased had we been able to give to our readers the opinion of Chief Justice Whiton, at length, in the case of Ableman vs. the state of Wisconsin, &c., but to do so, our limits would have compelled us to continue it through several days, thereby impairing its interest. To remedy this as far as possible, we shall publish to-morrow a carefully prepared synopsis of the whole argument, which next to the text itself, will give the best idea of it to be obtained. The high authority from which it comes, and the importance of the matter involved in this decision make it one of extraordinary interest. A law has been enacted by congress obnoxious to the people of the north in its theory, and doubly so in its practical operations, in that it contravenes one of the dearest principles of true republicanism, the right of trial by jury. To the supreme court of Wisconsin is presented the first opportunity to decide upon the constitutionality of that law, and the court pronounces it unconstitutional. The dissenters from this opinion either in point of feeling or of common sense, will be few indeed, and it starts a precedent which we hope will have its effect in other states.

☞ The Milwaukee Sentinel is troubled because the stock-holders of the Rock River Valley railroad are to have a meeting in New York, and thinks it is an inconvenient place for the meeting of the stock-holders of a Wisconsin railroad company. Perhaps if our officious neighbor had made known his wishes in the matter before the place was fixed for the meeting, the executive committee, in view of the untiring interest he has ever exhibited in the prosperity of the enterprise they have in charge, would have put themselves out to meet his his views; as it is now, we can hardly see how he is to help himself.

☞ Our telegarpic report is somewhat disjointed, in consequence of the bad working of the line between here and Milwaukee, and a portion of it was entirely lost.

☞ We hear that Cassius M. Clay is to address the citizens of Beloit to-day. Would it not be well to extend an invitation to him to visit Janesville?

☞ The Milwaukee papers state that the damage done at the collision of the two freight trains near Palmyra, the other day, will not be as great as was first supposed. The superintendent thinks that $2000 will cover the damage and complete all the repairs.

THE APPLICATION DENIED.—We stated in Friday's Sentinel that Gen. Payne, of counsel for S. M. Booth, had gone to Madison to apply to the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus. Argument in support of the application was offered by Gen. Payne. On Saturday the court overruled the application, upon the ground that the jurisdiction of the U. S. court had already attached and they therefore declided to interfere. In this decision we understand the court to have been unanimous. We presume that Mr. Booth will now give bail and stand his trial upon the indictment.—Mil. Sent.

ANOTHER RELIC.—The Detroit Tribune has brought to light a letter written by Mr. Stuart, now U. S. senator from Michigan, in 1847, in answer to one asking for a statement of his political opinions. Mr. Stuart says:

"So far as the slave states have rights under the constitution and laws of the Union, they should, in my opinion, be held inviolate. But in the organization of territorial governments, whether out of our present possessions, or such as we may hereafter acquire, a provision ought in my opinion to be incorporated prohibiting slavery."

Mr. Stuart voted for the Nebraska bill.

A FALLING MARKET.—The panic in the N. Y. money market continues. All descriptions of rail road stocks, bonds and securities are going down "by the run." How far they will fall before they stop, is difficult to guess. On Tuesday last, N. Y. Central sold down to 89, Michigan Central to 88, Illinois Central (bonds) to 69, Hudson River to 51 and N. Y. and Erie to 48! This last is a fall of 15 per cent. in three weeks. But while stocks are falling, money is growing easier. The N. Y. Mirror of the 18th says:

This unprecedented depression in stocks seems to work in exactly an opposite direction in monetary affairs. Capital is rapidly increasing, and the banks are discounting with great freedom. All good paper offering is done by those banks which are in a healthy condition. Money may now be regarded as perfectly easy. Call loans are negotiated readily at 6a7 per cent., and short paper at legal rates of interest. That of longer date—say four and six months—still commands from 10 to 12 per cent.

A SNAKE STORY.—The Fond du Lac Union is responsible for giving the following good story to the public:

STOCKBRIDGE, July 10, 1854.

To the Editor of The Fond du Lac Union.

DEAR SIR:—I wish to inform the public through you of a most remarkable case of a snake existing in the human stomach. The circumstances are as follows: The girl who is now fourteen years old, was taken sick some eight years ago, when a physician was called, who treated her with no success; soon another was called, who proved also unsuccessful; and another, and another, but without success.—The girl grew worse, and had so attained the actions of the snake that the children dare not sleep with her; she was also subject to fits, the cause arising from the snake crawling through the esophagus to the throat, which result was from the cooking of meat. She became emaciated and confined to her bed, when after the treatment of several physicians, the case was pronounced hopeless, when I accidentally heard of doctor Barnett, a young man residing in Fond du Lac, to whom I applied, and I am happy to say that after a successful treatment of five days the snake was passed by stool. The girl is fast recovering. The measurement of the snake was about eighteen inches long and one inch in diameter.

Yours, Dr. A. H. BETTS.

We the undersigned know the above facts to be true. Dr. BALDWIN, Stockbridge.
Dr. FOWLER, Manchester.

EMPHATIC.—A democrat convention was lately held at Columbus, Ind., to nominate a candidate for congress. Immense noise and confusion prevailed, but finally a motion to adjourn was carried. The result was then announced by the chairman, Col. Lee.

"Gentlemen, I declare this Convention adjourned, without a nomination, by G—d!"

An old colored man named Mitchell, of respectable character, and well known by many in this city, where he had lived more than forty years, died of cholera on Monday afternoon, at the age of one hundred and four years. His business was picking oakum, and he continued it until Saturday. The disease was brought on by eating cherries; and but for this imprudence he might have lived for some years yet, as he was remarkablhaley and rugged for his years. He had accumulated several hundred dollars in bank and owned 30 or 40 acres of land in Canada.—Sixty-two years of his life had been spent as a slave in Kentucky.—[Detroit Inquirer.

Dr. Arnold wrote poems on principle, but he never published them. Tom Moore tells of a gentleman who, when he was short of money always threatened his family with the publication of his poems. The immediate result was as much cash as he wanted.

SIGNIFICANT IF TRUE.—Statistics show that graduates of colleges contribute double their proportion of crime. Graduates in some of our state prisons are more than two to one of any other class, according to their numbers. It is a notorious fact that student life is generally one of license, that more mischief and rowdyism are enacted by young men at college than by any other class of people claiming to be respectable. The sole reason of this is the same which makes sailors and soldiers wicked, the want of that natural restraint, the presence of the other sex. Men do not stoop to be rowdies when with women they deem their equals.—Mrs. Swissheim.

The rumor from Boston, published Monday of an over-issue of the stock of the Vermont Central railroad, is hardly credible. The stock is almost worthless in the market, being nominally held at $3 ½ per share, and cannot be sold at that. Crane, the president, must be a very industrious man if he was to make day wages by fabricating "shares" in that company. A man might as well be employed in manufacturing notes on wild-cat banks, as in issuing spurious stock of a company whose genuine shares cannot be turned into money.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

GREAT TEST OF REAPERS.—Mr. J. S. Wright, of Chicago, the proprietor of Atkin's automaton reaper, and J. H. Manny, of Rockford, have agreed to have a test trial of the merits of their respective machines. The main point to be decided is whether the self-raking apparatus is really an advantage. Manny contends that it is not. Each of the proprietors chooses an umpire, and these two a third, who are to decide the matter. The stake is $1,500, which sum the beaten party is to pay to the Illinois State Agricultural Society.

A STRANGE SUIT.—A libel suit has been tried in Scottville, New York, growing out of the following facts:

At the town election in March, a ticket was procured to be printed, and to some extent voted, on which were the names of about a dozen ladies of that place, who were designated for the various town offices. It was assumed or implied that the ladies with whom this liberty was taken, favored the woman's right movement. The ballot was styled the "Shanghae ticket," and bore for a head device a cut of a magnificent bird of Chinese origin.

The friends of the ladies not relishing this "fun," have prosecuted for libel those whom they believe to be the authors of the ticket. It is said that the affair causes no little local excitement.

WON'T OBEY.—The citizens of Rockford have been having some good times recently on account of certain ordinances which the city council of that place passed about the 1st inst., requiring all the business houses to be closed at 9, o'clock in the evening, and making it the duty of the policemen to enquire into the business of every man that was found walking in the streets after that hour; and also making it their duty, if lights were seen in houses after 9, to go in and ascertain the cause, and if no good reason could be given make complaint and fine the guilty ones. The officers undertook to enforce the ordinances on the evening of 4th., and some of the citizens becoming disgusted took great pains violate it, and for the first two or three evenings after the 4th they congregated in large numbers and fired cannon and made "night hideous with their yells" until after midnight.—The officers did not interfere, and we presume the ordinance has gone to keep company with the "black laws of Illinois."—Freeport Bulletin.

CHOLERA ON THE PLAINS.—A letter to the Providence Journal from an officer of the U. S. army, dated Camp, near Platte river, Nebraska territory, chronicles the march of a body of troops across the plains from Fort Leavenworth a distance of 300 miles, under very gloomy circumstances. Shortly after leaving the fort, the cholera got among the men, and for a while they died at the rate of two or three a day.—They were buried two in a grave, after dark, without music or service, to avoid frightening the rest of the sick. After reaching the high land the sickness ceased.

The Buffalo Republic states that DeanRichmond, Esq., the vice president of the Central railroad company has sold certain real estate to that corporation to be used for the purpose of a depot, for the snug little sum of $250,000

SUCH AS THE CHOLERA CALLS FOR.—A family of Germans, who resided on the Chicago road, within fifteen minutes walk from the city hall, and had been supported at public expense for the last eight weeks, have been swept away by the cholera. First, the father was taken, then the two children, and lastly, the mother, in whose underskirt was found two thousand and five hundred dollars in gold. They have lived amid reeking filth, foul stenches, and health-destroying vapors, for weeks, and had imposed upon the public charity; but their avarice has availed them nothing; they are rotting in untimely graves of their own seeking, and the country is sole heir to their concealed wealth.—Detroit Free Press.

A DREADFUL RECORD.—Within four years past there have been over 1200 deaths by violence at San Francisco, California, of which it is said that 150 were cases of murder. For all this ocean of crime, but one man has been convicted by law, and suffered the penalty.

SAD.—We learn that a gentleman from Chicago arrived here on Saturday from that city with three children—all that were left to him of a family consisting of a wife, five children, niece, and brother-in-law. One of the remaining children was taken sick just before reaching this place and died Sunday evening. The bereaved parent with two children is left to go on to the home of relatives near Buffalo.—Detroit Trib. 18th inst.

AN ANCIENT MAINE LAW.—Among the ancient Germans some two thousand years ago, there was a tribe or nation called the Sneviaus, who would not suffer wine to be brought into their territory because they said it enervates the mind and unfits the body for exercise or labor. Yet these men were classed among barbarians by the Romans.

SINGULAR AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—The following accident occurred a few days ago, on the New York Central railroad:

"As the lightning train was passing the flag station, at Allen's creek, a stick of wood fell from the tender upon one of the wheels, by which it was projected with the velocity of a rifle ball in the direction of the house of the flag man, who was standing in his door. The stick, which was about four inches square, struck the man square in the head, passing nearly through it, and of course killing him instantly. The deceased's name was Fair nberg, and he leaves a wife and three or four children.

The North British Review, alluding to the stunted vegetation of the islands on the northern coast of Scotland, says the things growing there "by courtesy called trees, have a bad habit of resembling large shaving brushes, very much the worse of wear on one side."

PUNCH ON BONNETS—LAST AND BEST.—The last number of Punch contains a pictorial guess at the distance at which ladies' bonnets will be worn from their heads at the next remove. The tendency has been further and still further rearward, and the next change, Punch thinks, will carry them off the head entirely; so he represents the next fashion by two young ladies in full dress and bare-headed, sailing along the street, with a footman walking some ten feet behind, carrying the bonnets on a waiter.

We are kindly apprised by telegraph from Washington, that "the president will send in his veto of the river and harbor bill in a few days." We hope the president will not veto the bill in advance of its passage by congress. Our last authentic intelligence from the seat of government represented the river and harbor bill to be pending in the senate, with some doubt of its fate in that body.—Buff. Com.

THE HOMESTEAD BILL.—There is still hope that this measure will pass the senate. The latest despatch from Washington, July 21st, reports that the bill was ordered to be engrossed, though by what vote is not stated.

$20 REWARD.—A span of horses strayed or was stolen from the premises of of the subscriber one and-a-half miles from Beloit, on or about the 7th of June last. One of them was rather light in size, a fine looking brown color, a small white star in his forehead, a grey nose, about ten years old last spring, marked on both shoulders with the collar, and one foot with a small white spot; when in the harness he is high-spirited. The other was a heavy white horse, high-hipped, oldish looking, stiff in the forward parts, and marked with the collar on the top of the neck. Whoever will return these horses to Mr. Colley living within 1¼ miles of Beloit, or to David Noggle at Janesville, shall receive a reward of $20; or whoever will give information where they may be found shall be suitably rewarded. # BY TELEGRAPH!

[REPORTED FOR THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 24, 8 P. M.

Steamer Pacific arrived with 4 days later news from Europe. Wheat has declined 4a6 pence, flour one shilling. Consols 95.

No battle of importance has transpired yet.—Napier had withdrawn his fleets from before Constadt.

Prussia is forcing Austria with new negotiations. Strong suspicions are still entertained of the Austrians' good faith towards the Czar. Prussia sends a special envoy to Austria asking her to refrain from further steps with England and France but join her in new negotiations for peace.

Austria has countermanded the advance of of her army into Wallachia.

The Turks have crossed the Danube in considerable force.

An action occurred on ahe 5th at Gieusgero in which 160 Russians were killed and 200 wounded.

It is rumored that the combined fleets attacked Constadt on the 30th, but the further accounts say that the fleets anchored at Bard sound and that no engagement has taken place. It is reported that Russia is concentrating 300,000 men against Austria.

An engagement had occurred between the Russians and Barshabusouks in Asia. The latter lost 3000 men. 30,000 Russians have advanced from Odessa towards the Pruth. Particulars of the evacuation of the principalittes by the Russians are very contradictory.

An interview has taken place between prince Gortschakoff and the emperor of Austria. Russia has been occupying the ports on the Caspian sea. Persia has declared against the agression.

Four hundred cases of cholera are reported to have occurred in one day at St. Petersburgh.

Spain all quiet. At Madrid troops remain faithful to the Queen. The progress of the insurgents is slow.

London money market active. Consols had declined, closing at 92. The decline was owing to the complicated state of the war.

NEW YORK, July 24th.

The North Star arrived here. The health of the isthmus continues good.

MADISON MUSIC STORE.

THE undersigned has in his Ware Room, in Bruen's Model Block, a good assortment of Piano Fortes, Melodeons, and MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS generally. Some of the best manufacturers in the Union have samples of their work there.

Chickering, Hallet & Davis, Lemuel Gilbert, Woodward & Brown, Loren Matts of Boston, and Hall & Son of New York, are all contributors to his stock of Pianos.

Prince & Co., Bishop & Child, and S. D. & H. W. Smith's Melodeons are there also. These instruments are not found in auction rooms and other places where forced sales are made to raise money for the makers, for their reputation always commands customers on the manufacturers own terms. They are all for sale at factory prices, and warranted satisfactory.

Pianos from other manufactories can be furnished if desired.

An experienceneed and disinterested agent in New York selects for the subscriber any style and priced instrument desired—in whose judgment, musical skill and taste, implicit confidence can be placed.

NEW SHEET MUSIC received weekly, sold at publishers'prices, and sent by mail free of postage.

AGAIN & AGAIN
THE BOSTON STORE.
Let the Horn be Blown!!
"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea," WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that
"Man wants but little here below,"
and to supply those wants
WHEELOCK
Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely
TOO SMALL!
He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to
Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!
Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,
$39,007 00 Worth of Goods
But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the
BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.
Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense
STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,
His inimitable selection of
Fancy Dress Goods!
He has over
10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,
of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,
FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,
Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exqusite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of
Cotton, Grass & Linen Goods
are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—
Eved French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,
And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said
"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."
While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of
GLOVES,
by which hands can be protected and retain
"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."
And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are
"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"
the Nonparells of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

COARSE-HAND SEX.
Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—
PANTALOONS,
CALF "BEWTS,"COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do.,
PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,
HATS
That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,
The Boston Store
Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer
DOMESTIC GLASSWARE. WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.
In the
CROCKERY
Line may be found the
BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have
"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till It o'errun the stew,"
they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not
"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop, More in mock than mark."

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, "Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c. —also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.
Respectfully,
COOLEY & BABCOCK.

NEW GOODS!
$15,000 Worth of
JUST RECEIVED AT THE
Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store,

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of
Ladies Fine Shoes,
in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can
and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at
Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,
J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

SKETCHES OF BORDER-LIFE.

FLEET FOOT.—A LEGEND OF KENTUCKY.

BY WILLIAM T. COGGESHALL.

[Concluded.]

A considerable length of time had elapsed while the hunter was engaged in his dangerous enterprise of reconnoitering, and of communicating the glad tidings to the prisoners and it was far advanced in the night. He had for more than an hour expected that the Indians would appoint a watch for the prisoners, and break up their council. It must have been near midnight when he was gratified with a sight of preparations on the part of the savages, for a couple of hour's repose before they started on the march of the coming day. The hunter cautiously retreated from his proximity to the camp. Two savages left the main body, and approached their prisoners—the others wrapped themselves in their blankets, and stretched themselves upon the ground to sleep. The savages had secured their prisoners by tying their hands tightly behind large trees. They stood in this painful position several yards distant from each other.—The two warriors left to guard, manifested no disposition to allow them any position more favorable to rest or repose. Fleet Foot was a thoughtful observer of this neglect and it did not anger well in his mind for the safety of the prisoners on the morrow. He was impressed that the council which had just broken up, had decided on bloody deeds. He dare not act alone under such trying circumstances, and he determined to see Mac. It would have been no easy task for an inexperienced woodsman to have found his companion under such trying circumstances, but Fleet Foot had calculated well what were his chances of return to his friend, and he found but little difficulty in tracing his way to the vicinity where he left Mac. A signal well understood between the hunters, and not calculated to alarm the savages, had they heard it, was given and answered, and in a few minutes the brother and lover were earnestly consulting what was to be done to rescue Kate and her fellow prisoners.

"There are ten or a dozen of 'em," said Fleet Foot, "I can't exactly tell which, but any how, there's too many of 'em for us to fight, by powder; Ingins or no Ingins, them wimen shall be out of their clutches afore the varmints leave this camp, or I'm a dead hunter."

"That's my mind to a har," answered Mac, grasping Fleet Foot's hand.

"It's tarnal queer old Martin haint come up, but may be he has seen this fire, just as we did, and there's half a dozen of other fellows sneakin' about here now."

"May be," said Mac, "but we can't find 'em, and darsent make any signal or we'll have all them Ingins up in a minit, and no tellin' what might happen. We must calculate without 'em, and if we get into a fight and old Martin's about here, we'll have him on our side quick enough."

"Well," returned Fleet Foot, "there's only one way to do it—that fire's getting low—it wouldn't be queer if them Ingins on the watch went to sleep, 'cause they know the prisoners can't get away; and I'm certain they don't suspect anybody's on the track of 'em. Ef they did they wouldn't keep up sich a fire. Now, you follow me, and we'll go over there and watch the varmints, and whenever they shut their eyes, you take one and I'll take the other so quick he shan't give even a grunt, and then it'll be an easy matter to cut the prisoners loose."

Mac agreed to this arrangement. Daylight was now drawing near. Whatever plans were calculated on, must be executed without delay. The hunters knew if they succeeded in releasing the prisoners, as soon as the Indians discovered their loss, they would put forth every exertion, and exercise all their cunning to retake them; but with all this hazard before them, they resolved to release them if it was in their power, and trust to luck, shrewdness, and the probability of assistance from Martin's party. They were convinced that one or more of the prisoners would be killed on the morrow, and bravely and generously they thought it was worth while to risk their two lives to save three, one of which was particularly valuable to both hunters, but peculiarly so to one of them.

When the two Indian guards were growing weary and sleepy, they had no suspicions that two hunters with drawn knives were ready, if they slumbered, to make that their last sleep.

Fleet Foot began to fear that daylight would dawn before the savages nodded, and that the others would awaken and all would be lost.—Every moment increased the danger and narrowed the probabilities of rescue and escape. At length he brought himself to believe that the moment for action had arrived. He gave the concerted signal, and approached his victims who stood erect against a tree. He was successful, and drove his knife to the heart of the savage, who may have been dreaming, perhaps, of a wigwam far away, where children, of whom he was proud, awaited his return. The savage fell in his last sleep, heavily to the ground. That one which Mac was to have attacked, was startled by the fall. He was sitting upon the ground, nodding, but was not sound asleep. He sprang to his feet when Mac was not yet near enough to strike him. In an instant he would have been away from the dim light of the fire and out of sight of the hunter, but Mac rushed upon and grappled with him. Fleet Foot sprang to cut the bands which confined the prisoners. Meantime Mac struggled with the savage; both were powerful men—for a moment the savage was confused, and did not employ his strength and agility as he might have done under ordinary circumstances—of this confusion the hunter took advantage, and was quick enough to plunge his knife into the red man's breast—he fell with a cry which aroused his fellow warriors, who slumbered in confidence that his watchfulness protected them.

Ten Indians were on their feet, with their rifles in their hands, before the death cry of their guard had died in the woods. The fire, which they had left brightly burning, had nearly gone out. The brands were scattered. They could neither see their prisoners nor any foes. They did not rush forward to ascertain the fate of their sentinels, nor did they flee hastily from the spot where they had been sleeping. Each individual quietly skulked around a tree. No foe could see them. Not one of them could either see or hear a foe, but nevertheless there were very dangerous foes quite near them.

When Fleet Foot rushed to release the prisoners, he found the good work accomplished. A rough hand grasped his arm, and a voice which he knew well, said:

"We've been watchin' the varmints most all night. They're skeered now, but they won't run nor show themselves yet awhile; our boys understands. We must lay low with our guns cocked till its day, and we'll all git a blaze at 'em. How many?"

"Ten I guess," said Fleet Foot.

"Take care o' this woman;" said old Martin.

It was Kate. Fleet Foot said not a word; but put his arm around the girl as if he had a special right to protect her.

There was no wind stirring. It was as quiet in the deep woods, as if there had been no Indian camp—no desperate adventure—no struggle—no scene of death. Softly the morning light began to steal through the dense foliage—it searched its way amo g the green leaves, and slowly dissipated the gloom which hung tenaciously around the trunks of the trees—among the low bushes, and in the wooded ravines. The fox went snuffling to his hole—the rabbit hopped timidly from one moss bed or grass tuft to another—the birds left their nests and sang sweetly on twigs, which overhung fallen leaves stained with blood—the squirrel left its nest, and sat scarcely chippering on boughs that bent toward ashes, which were the result of a flame that had given light for the planning and executing of bold and daring designs.

Many an animal was, no doubt, watching in that fresh light of morning for an opportunity to secure such prey as he was wont to satisfy his hunger upon; and there were other eyes watching an opportunity to satisfy a passion, which will lead men often to more desperate deeds than hunger. The quiet, beautiful scene, a lover of nature would have rejoiced to delight in, was to be disturbed by other conflicts than those between cruel animals and their victims.

It was scarcely broad daylight, when one of the Indian warriors thought he saw a movement in a clump of bushes, a dozen rods or more distant from him. He watched, intently. He was not mistaken; other Indians had their suspicions excited; knowing glances were exchanged. The suspicious bush became more attractive to the savages. Presently, what was apparently a woman's bonnet, was to be seen cautiously elevated nearly to the top of the bushes, slowly turning around as if there were foes, or suspicious sign of foes in view. A rifle report rang through the forest, and the exposed bonnet disappeared. Again the woods was free from unusual sounds. It was not long before Indians skulked from one tree to another. They were at first very cautious, but they saw nothing to awaken suspicion, and they became more bold. Now one left his ambuscade, then another. It was not long before eight warriors stood near the spot where the fire of the night previous had gleamed on both exulting and hopeless faces. They talked rapidly, and seemed deciding upon the course they should pursue; suddenly their council was brought to a violent conclusion, by the unerring aim of half a dozen invisible rifles, and as many savages, springing into the air, fell dead, while four others—two of them from the council, and two others from an ambush, who were about leaving to join the council—bounded away through the woods with an energy which indicated that each knew he who was the fleetest, stood the first chance of escape. The hindmost Indian had not gone many rods before a ball arrested his career.

Fleet Foot had his eye upon one who distanced all the others. He recognized him by peculiar marks as the savage who had well nigh overtaken him on the two trying occasions previously mentioned, when his fleetness saved his life. The Indian had no weapon but his hunting knife. Fleet Foot dropped his unloaded rifle, and bounded swiftly in pursuit. Shouts rang after him as he sped his way. The Indian glanced behind him, saw what danger threatened him. He redoubled his energies, yet Fleet Foot gained on him, cheered as he was in the daring race by Mac, who followed with all his speed, but was barely able to keep in sight.

Away went the savage, bounding over logs, leaping ravines, and climbing steep banks, and after him came Fleet Foot, straining every muscle to its utmost tension. The hunters were all excited about the chase, and several were endeavoring to keep in sight of those who had already lost sight of Fleet Foot. There was one person who could not join in the chase, who had deeper in his fate than all the hunters—an interest which was confessed in soft whispers, when Fleet Foot was taking care of her as old Martin had directed him, in that hour of great suspense to the hunters and to the Indians, which they had passed before daylight. She would have endeavored to restrain Fleet Foot from his mad chase, but she did not know that such a race was to be run, until her lover was nearly out of her sight.

Fleet Foot was gaining faster and faster on the savage, who redoubled his energies; he took wild leaps and sudden turns, but the white man was equal to him in agility, and, at length, when there was a clear piece of woods before him, he found that he must soon be overtaken. Too brave to allow himself to be struck or taken prisoner when in flight, he turned and awaited his pursuer. Nothing daunted, Fleet Foot pressed forward. The indian had the advantage, should he rush upon him, and the hunter checked his career when within a few paces of the savage. A moment the foes glanced at each other. Three times had Fleet Foot distanced this indian, thrice to save his own life—the last time—the present one, to take the life of the red man.—Each knew the other. Now was to come a struggle severer than any previously decided between them. The indian was the larger man, and he was, perhaps, better skilled in the use of the knife.

The savage did not wait for his foe to recover from his long chase, but when his eye had run over the frame of his antagonist, and taken in the distance between them, he sprang toward him, fiercely aiming a violent blow with his knife which Fleet Foot dexterously parried, almost at the same moment giving the savage a left handed blow which staggered him. Following up his advantage, Fleet Foot made a thrust at the Indian's breast; the red man caught the arm which bore a knife swiftly toward his heart, and then followed a tight tussle—a moment, two knives gleamed in the air, then both fell upon the ground, and the indian and the hunter were each struggling to escape the other's grasp. Fleet Foot was borne to the earth, and the indian striving to keep him there, exerted himself also to the utmost to reach one of the knives. He was a stronger man than the hunter, and he had a great advantage over him, yet the hunter held so firmly, he could not reach a knife. He dare not release his hold the slightest, lest the hunter should spring to his feet.

His powerful knees were crushing the hunter's breast—his brawny hands were clenched around Fleet Foot's neck—a gleam of triumph danced in his savage eyes, which glared upon Fleet Foot's blackening face. The savage felt sure of his victim—his fleet and daring foe—this wicked joy expressed itself in every feature of his brawny countenance, and broke upon the air in a wild, fiendish laugh—that laugh was meant to be a knell for the hunter, but it nerved him to one great struggle—a struggle in which all his energy was concentrated—in which every muscle strained—every nerve stretched; he rose partly from the ground, bearing up the athletic savage, who lost the dangerous grasp, by which for a few moments he had been almost forcing the hunter's eyes from their sockets, but Fleet Foot only wasted his strength in that last struggle—he fell back upon the earth completely in the power of the infuriated savage, who was swift to perceive the surest and quickest mode of wreaking his passion, and he clenched in his right hand one of the knives which had fallen in the early part of the affray—he brandished it over his head—and from its polished blade bright reflections were a moment cast, as it hung in the air.

A low, shrill whistle might have been heard near the savage—the gleaming knife fell, but the savage fell with it, his features fixed in death, with them that fiendish exultation stamped upon them, which had nerved Fleet Foot to his last effort—that whistle which might have been heard near the savage, when he poised the knife, was from the swift passage of a rifle ball that lodged in his breast. With the report which rang after the ball, there came a shout that lifted Fleet Foot from his prostrated position.

Mac had come within rifle shot, just in time to save his friend's life.

Fleet Foot had been nearly strangled, and was much exhausted, but he soon rallied, and looking at the form of his foe, which was lying beside him, he said:

"It was a tight scuffle, Mac, by powder, and I'd been in kingdom come now if it had'nt been for you!"

"That's uncomfortably true," answered Mac. "You brag about runnin," but it liked to lost your scalp for you on this time. That fellow was enough for you on a race, and a leetle too much in a fight."

Fleet Foot and Mac, on retracing their steps, were met by the other hunters—there were joyful meetings which need not be described—nor scarcely need it be told, that, when the party reached the Fort (which it did early the following day,) there were immediate preparations for a backwoods wedding, which was not long afterward celebrated in a rude, but for the period, distinguished style.

Fleet Foot figured prominently in the latter annals of Kentucky, and was subsequently known as general ——. He left a posterity which has been engaged in modern politics as warmly as was ever their brave ancestor in pioneer enterprise.

The Daily Gazette.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 25, 1854.

☞ We should have been pleased had we been able to give to our readers the opinion of Chief Justice Whiton, at length, in the case of Ableman vs. the state of Wisconsin, &c., but to do so, our limits would have compelled us to continue it through several days, thereby impairing its interest. To remedy this as far as possible, we shall publish to-morrow a carefully prepared synopsis of the whole argument, which next to the text itself, will give the best idea of it to be obtained. The high authority from which it comes, and the importance of the matter involved in this decision make it one of extraordinary interest. A law has been enacted by congress obnoxious to the people of the north in its theory, and doubly so in its practical operations, in that it contravenes one of the dearest principles of true republicanism, the right of trial by jury. To the supreme court of Wisconsin is presented the first opportunity to decide upon the constitutionality of that law, and the court pronounces it unconstitutional. The dissenters from this opinion either in point of feeling or of common sense, will be few indeed, and it starts a precedent which we hope will have its effect in other states.

☞ The Milwaukee Sentinel is troubled because the stock-holders of the Rock River Valley railroad are to have a meeting in New York, and thinks it is an inconvenient place for the meeting of the stock-holders of a Wisconsin railroad company. Perhaps if our officious neighbor had made known his wishes in the matter before the place was fixed for the meeting, the executive committee, in view of the untiring interest he has ever exhibited in the prosperity of the enterprise they have in charge, would have put themselves out to meet his his views; as it is now, we can hardly see how he is to help himself.

☞ Our telegarpic report is somewhat disjointed, in consequence of the bad working of the line between here and Milwaukee, and a portion of it was entirely lost.

☞ We hear that Cassius M. Clay is to address the citizens of Beloit to-day. Would it not be well to extend an invitation to him to visit Janesville?

☞ The Milwaukee papers state that the damage done at the collision of the two freight trains near Palmyra, the other day, will not be as great as was first supposed. The superintendent thinks that $2000 will cover the damage and complete all the repairs.

THE APPLICATION DENIED.—We stated in Friday's Sentinel that Gen. Payne, of counsel for S. M. Booth, had gone to Madison to apply to the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus. Argument in support of the application was offered by Gen. Payne. On Saturday the court overruled the application, upon the ground that the jurisdiction of the U. S. court had already attached and they therefore declided to interfere. In this decision we understand the court to have been unanimous. We presume that Mr. Booth will now give bail and stand his trial upon the indictment.—Mil. Sent.

ANOTHER RELIC.—The Detroit Tribune has brought to light a letter written by Mr. Stuart, now U. S. senator from Michigan, in 1847, in answer to one asking for a statement of his political opinions. Mr. Stuart says:

"So far as the slave states have rights under the constitution and laws of the Union, they should, in my opinion, be held inviolate. But in the organization of territorial governments, whether out of our present possessions, or such as we may hereafter acquire, a provision ought in my opinion to be incorporated prohibiting slavery."

Mr. Stuart voted for the Nebraska bill.

A FALLING MARKET.—The panic in the N. Y. money market continues. All descriptions of rail road stocks, bonds and securities are going down "by the run." How far they will fall before they stop, is difficult to guess. On Tuesday last, N. Y. Central sold down to 89, Michigan Central to 88, Illinois Central (bonds) to 69, Hudson River to 51 and N. Y. and Erie to 48! This last is a fall of 15 per cent. in three weeks. But while stocks are falling, money is growing easier. The N. Y. Mirror of the 18th says:

This unprecedented depression in stocks seems to work in exactly an opposite direction in monetary affairs. Capital is rapidly increasing, and the banks are discounting with great freedom. All good paper offering is done by those banks which are in a healthy condition. Money may now be regarded as perfectly easy. Call loans are negotiated readily at 5a7 per cent., and short paper at legal rates of interest. That of longer date—say four and six months—still commands from 10 to 12 per cent.

A SNAKE STORY.—The Fond du Lac Union is responsible for giving the following good story to the public:

STOCKBRIDGE, July 10, 1854.

To the Editor of The Fond du Lac Union.

DEAR SIR:—I wish to inform the public through you of a most remarkable case of a snake existing in the human stomach. The circumstances are as follows: The girl who is now fourteen years old, was taken sick some eight years ago, when a physician was called, who treated her with no success; soon another was called, who proved also unsuccessful; and another, and another, but without success.—The girl grew worse, and had so attained the actions of the snake that the children dare not sleep with her; she was also subject to fits, the cause arising from the snake crawling through the esophagus to the throat, which result was from the cooking of meat. She became emaciated and confined to her bed, when after the treatment of several physicians, the case was pronounced hopeless, when I accidentally heard of doctor Barnett, a young man residing in Fond du Lac, to whom I applied, and I am happy to say that after a successful treatment of five days the snake was passed by stool. The girl is fast recovering. The measurement of the snake was about eighteen inches long and one inch in diameter.

Yours, DR. A. H. BETTS.

We the undersigned know the above facts to be true. DR. BALDWIN, Stockbridge.
DR. FOWLER, Manchester.

EMPHATIC.—A democrat convention was lately held at Columbus, Ind., to nominate a candidate for congress. Immense noise and confusion prevailed, but finally a motion to adjourn was carried. The result was then announced by the chairman, Col. Lee.

"Gentlemen, I declare this Convention adjourned, without a nomination, by G—d!"

An old colored man named Mitchell, of respectable character, and well known by many in this city, where he had lived more than forty years, died of cholera on Monday afternoon, at the age of one hundred and four years. His business was picking calcum, and he continued it until Saturday. The disease was brought on by eating cherries; and but for this imprudence he might have lived for some years yet, as he was remarkablhaley and rugged for his years. He had accumulated several hundred dollars in bank and owned 30 or 40 acres of land in Canada.—Sixty-two years of his life had been spent as a slave in Kentucky.—[Detroit Inquirer.

Dr. Arnold wrote poems on principle, but he never published them. Tom Moore tells of a gentleman who, when he was short of money always threatened his family with the publication of his poems. The immediate result was as much cash as he wanted.

SIGNIFICANT IF TRUE.—Statistics show that graduates of colleges contribute double their proportion of crime. Graduates in some of our state prisons are more than two to one of any other class, according to their numbers. It is a notorious fact that student life is generally one of license, that more mischief and rowdyism are enacted by young men at college than by any other class of people claiming to be respectable. The sole reason of this is the same which makes sailors and soldiers wicked, the want of that natural restraint, the presence of the other sex. Men do not stoop to be rowdies when with women they deem their equals.—Mrs. Swissholm.

The rumor from Boston, published Monday of an over-issue of the stock of the Vermont Central railroad, is hardly credible. The stock is almost worthless in the market, being nominally held at $3 ¼ per share, and cannot be sold at that. Crane, the president, must be a very industrious man if he was to make day wages by fabricating "shares" in that company. A man might as well be employed in manufacturing notes on wild-cat banks, as in issuing spurious stock of a company whose genuine shares cannot be turned into money.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

GREAT TEST OF REAPERS.—Mr. J. S. Wright, of Chicago, the proprietor of Atkin's automaton reaper, and J. H. Manny, of Rockford, have agreed to have a test trial of the merits of their respective machines. The main point to be decided is whether the self-raking apparatus is really an advantage. Manny contends that it is not. Each of the proprietors chooses an umpire, and these two a third, who are to decide the matter. The stake is $1,500, which sum the beaten party is to pay to the Illinois State Agricultural Society.

A STRANGE SUIT.—A libel suit has been tried in Scottville, New York, growing out of the following facts:

At the town election in March, a ticket was procured to be printed, and to some extent voted, on which were the names of about a dozen ladies of that place, who were designated for the various town offices. It was assumed or implied that the ladies with whom this liberty was taken, favored the woman's right movement. The ballot was styled the "Shanghae ticket," and bore for a head device a cut of a magnificent bird of Chinese origin.

The friends of the ladies not relishing this "fun," have prosecuted for libel those whom they believe to be the authors of the ticket. It is said that the affair causes no little local excitement.

WON'T OBEY.—The citizens of Rockford have been having some good times recently on account of certain ordinances which the city council of that place passed about the 1st inst., requiring all the business houses to be closed at 9, o'clock in the evening, and making it the duty of the policemen to enquire into the business of every man that was found walking in the streets after that hour; and also making it their duty, if lights were seen in houses after 9, to go in and ascertain the cause, and if no good reason could be given make complaint and fine the guilty ones. The officers undertook to enforce the ordinances on the evening of 4th., and some of the citizens becoming disgusted took great pains violate it, and for the first two or three evenings after the 4th they congregated in large numbers and fired cannon and made "night hideous with their yells" until after midnight.—The officers did not interfere, and we presume the ordinance has gone to keep company with the "black laws of Illinois."—Freeport Bulletin.

CHOLERA ON THE PLAINS.—A letter to the Providence Journal from an officer of the U. S. army, dated Camp, near Platte river, Nebraska territory, chronicles the march of a body of troops across the plains from Fort Leavenworth, a distance of 300 miles, under very gloomy circumstances. Shortly after leaving the fort, the cholera got among the men, and for a while they died at the rate of two or three a day.—They were buried two in a grave, after dark, without music or service, to avoid frightening the rest of the sick. After reaching the high land the sickness ceased.

The Buffalo Republic states that Dean Richmond, Esq., the vice president of the Central railroad company has sold certain real estate to that corporation to be used for the purpose of a depot, for the snug little sum of $250,000.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought;
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

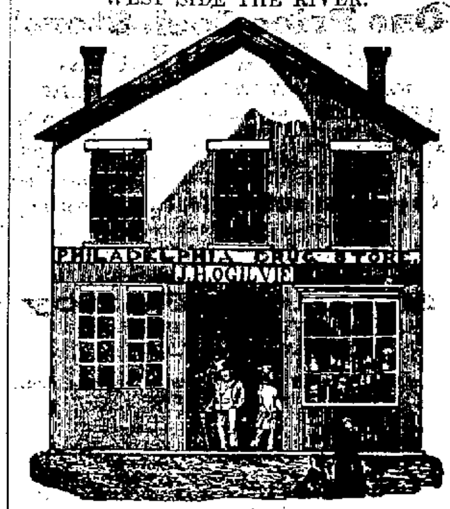

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

IRA P. BALLOU.

The Dry Goods Trade.

IMMENSE DAILY ARRIVALS!

Cash System Triumphant!

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT, SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Gro de Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Bareges, Barege Delaines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found

3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5⅜ c., sold at other stores at 1s. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
4,000 do. 1s., sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s., sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼c., sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1600 Parasols. Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast.

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS,
Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware.

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices,—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

A GREAT MISTAKE.

J. B. CROSBY & Co.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down at which will crowd their store with customers and ensure large and heavy sales, thus making room for goods yet to arrive. Ladies and Gentlemen,

A TRIFLE ABOVE COST,

THIS IS NO HUMBUG,

but a REALITY, and to be convinced of this fact personally, look through their immense stock, see the amount of goods they have in store, (and but a portion of their stock has yet arrived,) enquire the price, and you will acknowledge that we will sell you

GOOD GOODS, at nearly half the Price,

that other Merchants charge. We shall not mention a few leading articles and their prices, and sell the balance of stock at higher rates, as other Merchants do, but shall mark our whole stock at a small regular profit, and adhere strictly to the

ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

Our stock consists of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c. &c., to which we invite especial attention, as to quality and price, as we are determined that

Every Sale shall give Full and Perfect Satisfaction.

Auction or shop worn goods which are not cheap at any price we do not deal in; but buy only the best grade of goods, and of the latest styles. We are the only House in Janesville that do a strictly cash business, and buying of importers and wholly for cash, we

CHEAPER AND BETTER GOODS,

than those who buy small stocks on time, and sell them the same way.

To Country Merchants,

Tobacco Manufactory.

DEWEY & HOLLANDER,

(Successors to Dewey & Chapin,)

HAVE furnished their Manufactory with a large stock of the best quality, and are prepared to

Manufacture Tobacco,

IN EVERY FORM IN WHICH IT IS USED.

They invite the attention of dealers to the Quality of their Material and their facilities for manufacturing, and are confident they can sell a Better Article at a Lower Price than any other manufactory in this region of country.

They are also prepared to Purchase all the Leaf Tobacco which may be offered them, and pay the highest price therefor.

THE above cut is taken from a daguerreotype of the front of the NEW AND SPLENDID STORE, erected especially for the Drug Trade, and fitted up in the most improved style.

TO THE TRADE.

We would offer inducements never before realized by purchasers. To replenish their stock from us, all we ask is 10 per cent from eastern prices, adding freight and insurance. This we can do, as our facilities for procuring goods are superior to any establishment west; and having no rents to make up on our sales, we are enabled to SELL THINGS CHEAPER, AND WARRANT PURE than any other house.

PRESCRIPTIONS AND FAMILY MEDICINES accurately compounded, all hours, day or night.

| Paralysis, | Female Diseases, |
| Spinal Disease, | Neuralgia of the Face, |
| Deafness, Blindness, | Rheumatic Pains of the |

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnachan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled, molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c.

CIRCUIT COURT, ROCK COUNTY—IN EQUITY.
William A. Smith, William Steele, Jr., and Ira Smith, Jr., complainants, vs. Asa W. White, Elizabeth White, Nelson Winston and others, defendants.

IN pursuance and by virtue of a decretal order made in the above entitled cause on the 13th day of June, 1854, will be sold by or under the direction of the sheriff of Rock county, at the Merchant's Hotel in the city of Janesville in said county, on Tuesday, the 22d day of August next, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all and singular the mortgaged premises mentioned in the bill of complaint in said cause and hereinafter described, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amount mentioned in said decree, together with all interest and costs which may accrue thereon up to the day of said sale. The premises mentioned in the bill of complaint in this cause are described as follows, to wit: "All the following described lot and parcel of land that is situated in the county of Rock and state of Wisconsin, and is known as being the south half of the south east quarter of section twenty-nine, town four north, of range ten east; also, the west half of the north half of the south east quarter of said section number twenty-nine; also, the west half of the west half of the north east quarter of the south east quarter of said section twenty-nine, containing one hundred and thirty acres of land be the same more or less." Dated Janesville July 6, 1854.

IN CIRCUIT COURT OF ROCK COUNTY—IN CHANCERY
Clarissa C. Peck, administratrix of the estate of Philander Peck, deceased, vs. Lutia Ann Rice, James P. Rice, Emanuel Cawker, Simeon Kahn, James Norville and others.

THE subpœna issued in the above entitled cause having been returned by the sheriff of Rock county not served on the above named defendants James Norville and Simeon Kahn, and that after diligent search they cannot find the said defendants in this county, and it having been made satisfactorily to appear that the said defendants cannot be found in the state of Wisconsin, and no appearance having been entered by or on behalf of said defendants, therefore, on motion of Prosper Cravath, solicitor for the complainant, ordered that the said defendants appear and plead, answer or demur to the bill of complaint filed in this cause on or before the 29th day of September next, or that in default thereof the said bill of complaint be taken as confessed against them. And it is further ordered that within twenty days from the date of this order the complainant cause a copy of this order to be personally served on the said defendants, James Norville and Simeon Kahn, or that she cause a copy of the same to be published in the Janesville Gazette, a public newspaper printed and published in the city of Janesville, at least once in each week for six weeks successively.

Dated June 29th, 1854.

A STORE FOR SALE OR TO LET.

THE STORE and a Lot of ground known as Lot No 3, on Block No. 1, in the village and township of FULTON, Rock County, on the Catfish, near its confluence with Rock river, 11 miles northwest of Janesville.

The building is well calculated for a country store, being 23 feet front by 52 feet deep, and finished off above into convenient apartments either for a family or for offices, all in good condition.

The whole has been occupied for three years past by Messrs. T. E. and F. G. Green, as a store and dwelling, and being situated immediately opposite the Gristmill, is considered the best location for business in the village. The lot is two rods front by about seven rods deep.

This property will be sold or let on reasonable terms, and possession given immediately. For particular enquire of MILLS & SAYRE, Fulton, so 43 LEVI ALDEN, Janesville.

JANESVILLE FOUNDRY,

SUCH AS THE CHOLERA CALLS FOR.—A family of Germans, who resided on the Chicago road, within fifteen minutes walk from the city hall, and had been supported at public expense for the last eight weeks, have been swept away by the cholera. First, the father was taken, then the two children, and lastly, the mother, in whose underskirt was found two thousand and five hundred dollars in gold. They have lived amid reeking filth, foul stenches, and health-destroying vapors, for weeks, and had imposed upon the public charity; but their avarice has availed them nothing; they are rotting in untimely graves of their own seeking, and the country is sole heir to their concealed wealth.—Detroit Free Press.

A DREADFUL RECORD.—Within four years past there have been over 1200 deaths by violence at San Francisco, California, of which it is said that 150 were cases of murder. For all this ocean of crime, but one man has been convicted by law, and suffered the penalty.

SAD.—We learn that a gentleman from Chicago arrived here on Saturday from that city with three children—all that were left to him of a family consisting of a wife, five children, niece, and brother-in-law. One of the remaining children was taken sick just before reaching this place and died Sunday evening. The bereaved parent with two children is left to go on to the home of relatives near Buffalo.—Detroit Trib. 18th inst.

AN ANCIENT MAINE LAW.—Among the ancient Germans some two thousand years ago, there was a tribe or nation called the Suevians, who would not suffer wine to be brought into their territory because they said it enervates the mind and unfits the body for exercise or labor. Yet these men were classed among barbarians by the Romans.

SINGULAR AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—The following accident occurred a few days ago, on the New York Central railroad:

"As the lightning train was passing the flag station, at Allen's creek, a stick of wood fell from the tender upon one of the wheels, by which it was projected with the velocity of a rifle ball in the direction of the house of the flag man, who was standing in his door. The stick, which was about four inches square, struck the man square in the head, passing nearly through it, and of course killing him instantly. The deceased's name was Fair n'berg, and he leaves a wife and three or four children.

The North British Review, alluding to the stunted vegetation of the islands on the northern coast of Scotland, says the things growing there "by courtesy called trees, have a bad habit of resembling large shaving brushes, very much the worse of wear on one side."

PUNCH ON BONNETS—LAST AND BEST.—The last number of Punch contains a pictorial guess at the distance at which ladies' bonnets will be worn from their heads at the next remove. The tendency has been further and still further rearward, and the next change, Punch thinks, will carry them off the head entirely; so he represents the next fashion by two young ladies in full dress and bare-headed, sailing along the street, with a footman walking some ten feet behind, carrying the bonnets on a waiter.

We are kindly apprised by telegraph from Washington, that "the president will send in his veto of the river and harbor bill in a few days." We hope the president will not veto the bill in advance of its passage by congress. Our last authentic intelligence from the seat of government represented the river and harbor bill to be pending in the senate, with some doubt of its fate in that body.—Buff. Com.

THE HOMESTEAD BILL.—There is still hope that this measure will pass the senate. The latest despatch from Washington, July 21st, reports that the bill was ordered to be engrossed, though by what vote is not stated.

One of them was rather light in size, a fine looking brown color, a small white star in his forehead, a grey nose, about ten years old last spring, marked on both shoulders with the collar, and one foot with a small white spot; when in the harness he is high-spirited. The other was a heavy white horse, high-hipped, oldish looking, stiff in the forward parts, and marked with the collar on the top of the neck. Whoever will return these horses to Mr. Colley living within 1½ miles of Beloit, or to David Noggle at Janesville, shall receive a reward of $20; or whoever will give information where they may be found shall be suitably rewarded. [REPORTED FOR THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 24, 3 P. M.

Steamer Pacific arrived with 4 days later news from Europe. Wheat has declined 4a6 pence, flour one shilling. Consols 95.

No battle of importance has transpired yet.—Napier had withdrawn his fleets from before Constadt.

Prussia is forcing Austria with new negotiations. Strong suspicions are still entertained of the Austrians' good faith towards the Czar. Prussia sends a special envoy to Austria asking her to refrain from further steps with England and France but join her in new negotiations for peace.

Austria has countermanded the advance of of her army into Wallachia.

The Turks have crossed the Danube in considerable force.

An action occurred on ahe 5th at Glensgero in which 160 Russians were killed and 200 wounded.

It is rumored that the combined fleets attacked Constadt on the 30th, but the further accounts say that the fleets anchored at Bard sound and that no engagement has taken place. It is reported that Russia is concentrating 300,000 men against Austria.

An engagement had occurred between the Russians and Barshabusouks in Asia. The latter lost 3000 men. 30,000 Russians have advanced from Odessa towards the Pruth. Particulars of the evacuation of the principalities by the Russians are very contradictory.

An interview has taken place between prince Gortschakoff and the emperor of Austria. Russia has been occupying the ports on the Caspian sea. Persia has declared against the agression.

Four hundred cases of cholera are reported to have occurred in one day at St. Petersburgh.

Spain all quiet. At Madrid troops remain faithful to the Queen. The progress of the insurgents is slow.

London money market active. Consols had declined, closing at 92. The decline was owing to the complicated state of the war.

NEW YORK, July 24th.

The North Star arrived here. The health of the isthmus continues good.

Cut and Wrought Nails and Spikes,
Tin Ware, Tinner's Stock,
Brittania and Japanned Ware,
Table and Pocket Cutlery,
Shears, Scissors, Razors, &c.

Cook and Parlor Stoves

was never larger than at present, and comprises some forty different patterns selected with great care, (having been previously fully tested in this market,) from several of the best manufactories in Troy and Albany. Having bought our Stoves on long time, without interest, and at a great discount, we are enabled to compete successfully with those who buy in SMALL LOTS, "exclusively for cash," of which we will convince all who may give us a trial.

STOVE FURNITURE, STOVE PIPE, and all kinds of TIN WARE constantly on hand, or manufactured to order.

We are agents for the sale of Duryee & Forsyth's celebrated Fire Proof Safes and Platform and Counter Scales, and also for the sale of Yale's Magic Bank, Safe and Store Door Locks.

AGAIN & AGAIN
THE BOSTON STORE.
Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea," WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that
"Man wants but little here below,"
and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,
His inimitable selection of
Fancy Dress Goods!
He has over
10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,
of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,
FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,
Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exqusite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—
Eved French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,
And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain
"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are
"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"
the Nonparells of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS,"COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer
DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.
In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the
BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the propriet r of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have
"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till It o'errun the stew," they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, "Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c. —also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhea. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.
Respectfully,

NEW GOODS!
$15,000 Worth of
JUST RECEIVED AT THE
Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,
J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

SUCH AS THE CHOLERA CALLS FOR.—A family of Germans, who resided on the Chicago road, within fifteen minutes walk from the city hall, and had been supported at public expense for the last eight weeks, have been swept away by the cholera. First, the father was taken, then the two children, and lastly, the mother, in whose underskirt was found two thousand and five hundred dollars in gold. They have lived amid reeking filth, foul stenches, and health-destroying vapors, for weeks, and had imposed upon the public charity; but their avarice has availed them nothing; they are rotting in untimely graves of their own seeking, and the country is sole heir to their concealed wealth.—Detroit Free Press.

A DREADFUL RECORD.—Within four years past there have been over 1200 deaths by violence at San Francisco, California, of which it is said that 150 were cases of murder. For all this ocean of crime, but one man has been convicted by law, and suffered the penalty.

SAD.—We learn that a gentleman from Chicago arrived here on Saturday from that city with three children—all that were left to him of a family consisting of a wife, five children, niece, and brother-in-law. One of the remaining children was taken sick just before reaching this place and died Sunday evening. The bereaved parent with two children is left to go on to the home of relatives near Buffalo.—Detroit Trib. 18th inst.

AN ANCIENT MAINE LAW.—Among the ancient Germans some two thousand years ago, there was a tribe or nation called the Suevians, who would not suffer wine to be brought into their territory because they said it enervates the mind and unfits the body for exercise or labor. Yet these men were classed among barbarians by the Romans.

SINGULAR AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—The following accident occurred a few days ago, on the New York Central railroad:

"As the lightning train was passing the flag station, at Allen's creek, a stick of wood fell from the tender upon one of the wheels, by which it was projected with the velocity of a rifle ball in the direction of the house of the flag man, who was standing in his door. The stick, which was about four inches square, struck the man square in the head, passing nearly through it, and of course killing him instantly. The deceased's name was Fairnberg, and he leaves a wife and three or four children.

The North British Review, alluding to the stunted vegetation of the islands on the northern coast of Scotland, says the things growing there "by courtesy called trees, have a bad habit of resembling large shaving brushes, very much the worse of wear on one side."

PUNCH ON BONNETS—LAST AND BEST.—The last number of Punch contains a pictorial guess at the distance at which ladies' bonnets will be worn from their heads at the next remove. The tendency has been further and still further rearward, and the next change, Punch thinks, will carry them off the head entirely; so he represents the next fashion by two young ladies in full dress and bare-headed, sailing along the street, with a footman walking some ten feet behind, carrying the bonnets on a waiter.

We are kindly apprised by telegraph from Washington, that "the president will send in his veto of the river and harbor bill in a few days." We hope the president will not veto the bill in advance of its passage by congress. Our last authentic intelligence from the seat of government represented the river and harbor bill to be pending in the senate, with some doubt of its fate in that body.—Buff. Com.

THE HOMESTEAD BILL.—There is still hope that this measure will pass the senate. The latest despatch from Washington, July 21st, reports that the bill was ordered to be engrossed, though by what vote is not stated.

LET THEM THAT THIRSTETH COME.

BY TELEGRAPH!

[REPORTED FOR THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 24, 3 P. M.

Steamer Pacific arrived with 4 days later news from Europe. Wheat has declined 4a6 pence, flour one shilling. Consols 95.

No battle of importance has transpired yet.—Napier had withdrawn his fleets from before Constadt.

Prussia is forcing Austria with new negotiations. Strong suspicions are still entertained of the Austrians' good faith towards the Czar. Prussia sends a special envoy to Austria asking her to refrain from further steps with England and France but join her in new negotiations for peace.

Austria has countermanded the advance of of her army into Wallachia.

The Turks have crossed the Danube in considerable force.

An action occurred on ahe 5th at Gieusgero in which 160 Russians were killed and 200 wounded.

It is rumored that the combined fleets attacked Constadt on the 30th, but the further accounts say that the fleets anchored at Bard sound and that no engagement has taken place. It is reported that Russia is concentrating 300,000 men against Austria.

An engagement had occurred between the Russians and Barshabusouks in Asia. The latter lost 3000 men. 30,000 Russians have advanced from Odessa towards the Pruth. Particulars of the evacuation of the principalitles by the Russians are very contradictory.

An interview has taken place between prince Gortschakoff and the emperor of Austria. Russia has been occupying the ports on the Caspian sea. Persia has declared against the agression.

Four hundred cases of cholera are reported to have occurred in one day at St. Petersburgh.

Spain all quiet. At Madrid troops remain faithful to the Queen. The progress of the insurgents is slow.

London money market active. Consols had declined, closing at 92. The decline was owing to the complicated state of the war.

The Arabia arrived at Liverpool on the morning of the 9th.

NEW YORK, July 24th.

The North Star arrived here. The health of the isthmus continues good.

MADISON MUSIC STORE.

THE undersigned has in his Ware Room, in Bruen's Model Block, a good assortment of Piano Fortes, Melodeons, and MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS generally. Some of the best manufacturers in the Union have samples of their work there.

Chickering, Hallet & Davis, Lemuel Gilbert, Woodward & Brown, Loren Mutts of Boston, and Hall & Son of New York, are all contributors to his stock of Pianos.

Prince & Co., Bishop & Child, and S. D. & H. W. Smith's Melodeons are there also. These instruments are not found in auction rooms and other places where forced sales are made to raise money for the makers, for their reputation always commands customers on the manufacturers own terms. They are all for sale at factory prices, and warranted satisfactory.

Pianos from other manufactories can be furnished if desired.

An experienced and disinterested agent in New York selects for the subscriber any style and priced instrument desired—in whose judgment, musical skill and taste, implicit confidence can be placed.

NEW SHEET MUSIC received weekly, sold at publishers' prices, and sent by mail free of postage.

Violins, Guitars, Tamborines,

Banjos, Accordeons, Flutes, Fifes.
Italian and other Violin Strings. Guitar and Bass Viol Strings of the best quality. Violin Bows and parts of Violins.

Bertini's, Hunter's, and other instruction books for all instruments, and many other articles in the music line, usually found in such stores, kept always on hand.

Do not go further East, until you have called at the

MADISON MUSIC STORE,

for, depend upon it, there is no use in it.

Crayolithic Painting, Leather Relievo and Papier Mache Work.

MRS. LA DOW and MISS WINTERS have taken rooms for a few days at Mrs. Streeter's residence, on Main street, one door above the corner or Milwaukee street, and will give lessons in the above branches of useful and ornamental work.

Pupils will be received and thoroughly instructed in either or all of these acquirements, on such terms as will be satisfactory. Materials furnished, and pupils allowed to retain the pieces upon which they are instructed. Usually, these pieces will of themselves, if sold, more than pay the cost of tuition.

An examination of specimen work is respectfully invited.

DEALERS IN

HARDWARE,

Wholesale & Retail,

SIGN OF THE SAW, MAIN STREET, JANESVILLE

THE SUBSCRIBERS, in returning their thanks to their numerous patrons for past favors, and soliciting a continuance of the same, would respectfully inform the people of Central and Western Wisconsin, that they have now in store, and offer for sale, at the lowest cash prices, a larger and better selected stock of

Heavy and Shelf Hardware,
Bar Iron, Steel, Nails,
Stoves, &c.,

than can be found in any other establishment in the interior of the State.

The attention of Consumers and Country Dealers is particularly invited to our immense stock of

Also to the almost endless variety of superior
Carpenter, Joiner, Cooper, Blacksmith, Wagon-making and Farming TOOLS,
House Trimmings,
Chain and Cistern Pumps, Lead Pipe,
Cut and Wrought Nails and Spikes,
Tin Ware, Tinner's Stock,
Brittania and Japanned Ware,
Table and Pocket Cutlery,
Shears, Scissors, Razors, &c.

Our stock of

Cook and Parlor Stoves

was never larger than at present, and comprises some forty different patterns selected with great care, (having been previously fully tested in this market,) from several of the best manufactories in Troy and Albany. Having bought our Stoves on long time, without interest, and at a great discount, we are enabled to compete successfully with those who buy in SMALL LOTS, "exclusively for cash," of which we will convince all who may give us a trial.

STOVE FURNITURE, STOVE PIPE, and all kinds of TIN WARE constantly on hand, or manufactured to order.

We are agents for the sale of Duryee & Forsyth's celebrated Fire Proof Safes and Platform and Counter Scales, and also for the sale of Yale's Magic Bank, Safe and Store Door Locks.

AGAIN & AGAIN
THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea," WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that
"Man wants but little here below,"
and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparel.—
Eved French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said
"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain
"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are
"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"
the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS,"COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer
DOMESTIC GLASSWARE. WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the

BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have
"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till It o'errun the stew," they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c.—also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO.,
C. F. Simms, Carr & Gordon, Beloit; G. W. Kinsie, Magnolia; Goodrich, Davis & Co., Milton; S. A. Pond, Albany; P. D. Vaughn & Co., Union; H. Cheney, Johnstown; M. Elliot, Monroe. 43m3

Pure White Lead at $2.25 per Keg!

TEN TONS NOW IN STORE,

FOR the remainder of the season Pure White Lead, ground in Oil, can be had at the Empire Drug Store in quantities to suit purchasers at the rate of Nine Dollars per hundred pounds. This is a lower figure than the article is sold at any other place west of Lake Michigan, and affords an opportunity for all to buy their White Lead at nett cost. We have also a heavy stock of Zinc, Mineral and Fancy Paints, dry and ground in Oil, Patent Dryer, Glue, Varnishes, Brushes, &c., together with 1000 gallons English and American Linseed Oil, all of which we are now offering at a fraction above cost. The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,
COOLEY & BABCOCK.

Rare Chance for Investment!

600 Village Lots!

THE undersigned offers at private sale SIX HUNDRED VILLAGE LOTS, situated in "Hickory Glen" and "Pixley & Shaw's" addition to Janesville, and located in the immediate vicinity of the Milwaukee and Mississippi railroad depot, in the city of Janesville.

The above property is but a short distance from the present business center of the thriving city of Janesville, and towards which, through the influence of the various railroads, in operation and projected, the business of the city is fast finding its way.

It is unnecessary to speak of the peculiar advantages of an investment in a property so centrally located in the largest inland city in the State of Wisconsin—a city so widely known for its thrift and business prosperity, possessing extensive water-power and surrounded by the best farming country in the world—as every one at all conversant with the progress of western cities will see at once these advantages.

The above property is offered at very low rates, and on the most favorable terms, particularly to those who wish to make immediate improvements on purchases.

Also, 1,000 Acres of the

Best Improved Farming Lands,

situated within a few miles of the city, which will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, from 40 to 320 acres.

For particulars enquire of the undersigned at "Pixley & Kimball's Hardware Store," or of THOMAS SHAW. B. F. PIXLEY.

NEW GOODS!
$15,000 Worth of
BOOTS AND SHOES

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $8,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kinds of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates.

Yours respectfully,
J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for Infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stocks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

IRA P. BALLOU.

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Gro de Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Barages, Barege Delaines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found

3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5½ c., sold at other stores at 8c. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
1,000 do. Ecru sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s., sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼c., sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1000 Parasols. Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast.

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS, Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

A GREAT MISTAKE,

J. B. CROSBY & Co.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down at which will crowd their store with customers and ensure large and heavy sales, thus making room for goods yet to arrive. Ladies and Gentlemen,

A TRIFLE ABOVE COST,

THIS IS NO HUMBUG,

but a REALITY, and to be convinced of this fact personally, look through their immense stock, see the amount of goods they have in store, (and but a portion of their stock has yet arrived,) enquire the prices, and you will acknowledge that we will sell you

GOOD GOODS, at nearly half the Price,

that other Merchants charge. We shall not mention a few leading articles and their prices, and sell the balance of stock at higher rates, as other Merchants do, but shall mark our whole stock at a small regular profit, and adhere strictly to the

ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

Our stock consists of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c. &c., to which we invite especial attention, as to quality and price, as we are determined that

Every Sale shall give Full and Perfect Satisfaction.

Auction or shop worn goods which are not cheap in any price we do not deal in; but buy only the best grade of goods, and of the latest styles. We are the only House in Janesville that do a strictly cash business, and buying of importers and wholly for cash, we than those who buy small stocks on time, and sell them the same way.

CHEAPER AND BETTER GOODS,

To Country Merchants,

We would say, that we will sell you goods at New York and Boston prices, adding freight. You will find us at the old stand of J. B. CROSBY; two doors above the Post Office.

HISTORY.

Pulvermacher's Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that no cures disorders are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic?"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled medicines and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enceinte, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c. J. STEINERT, General Agent,

IN CIRCUIT COURT OF ROCK COUNTY—In Chancery

Clarissa C. Peck, administratrix of the estate of Philander Peck, deceased, vs. Lutia Ann Rice, James P. Rice, Emanuel Cauker, Simeon Kahn, James Norville and others.

THE subpœna issued in the above entitled cause having been returned by the sheriff of Rock county not served on the above named defendants James Norville and Simeon Kahn, and that after diligent search they cannot find the said defendants in this county, and it having been made satisfactorily to appear that the said defendants cannot be found in the state of Wisconsin, and no appearance having been entered by or on behalf of said defendants, therefore, on motion of Prosper Cravath, solicitor for the complainant, ordered that the said defendants appear and plead, answer or demur to the bill of complaint filed in this cause on or before the 29th day of September next, or that in default thereof the said bill of complaint be taken as confessed against them. And it is further ordered that within twenty days from the date of this order the complainant cause a copy of this order to be personally served on the said defendants, James Norville and Simeon Kahn, or that she cause a copy of the same to be published in the Janesville Gazette, a public newspaper printed and published in the city of Janesville, at least once in each week for six weeks successively.

Dated June 29th, 1854.

41w7 J. R. DOOLITTLE, Circuit Judge.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, ROCK COUNTY—In Equity.

Phebe A. Scott, compl't, vs. Riley W. Scott, def't.

THE subpœna issued in the above entitled cause having been returned by the sheriff of the county of Rock not served on the above named defendant, and that after diligent search and inquiry he could not find the said defendant within this state, and that said Scott was not a resident of this state, and it having been made satisfactorily to appear that the said defendant is not a resident of the state of Wisconsin, and no appearance having been entered by or on behalf of said defendant; therefore, on motion of William M. Tallman, solicitor for complainant, ordered that said defendant appear and plead, answer or demur to the bill of complaint filed in this cause on or before the 14th day of September next, or that in default thereof the said bill of complaint be taken as confessed against him.

And it is further ordered that within twenty days from the date of this order the complainant cause a copy of this order to be personally served on the said defendant above named, or that he cause a copy of the same to be published in the Janesville Gazette, a public newspaper printed and published in the city of Janesville, at least once in each week for six weeks successively. Dated June 13th, 1854.

By the Court,

IN CIRCUIT COURT, ROCK COUNTY—In Equity.

George C. Tallman, compl't, vs. Isaac M. Norton et al., def'ts.

IN pursuance of a decretal order of the circuit court for Rock county in equity made in the above entitled cause, on the 6th day of June, A. D. 1854, will be sold, by and under the direction of the sheriff of Rock county, at public auction, at the court house, in the city of Janesville, in said county, on the 31st day of July, A. D. 1854, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, all that certain piece, parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the village (now city) of Janesville, in the county of Rock and state of Wisconsin, and bounded and described as follows, to wit: Bounded on the north by the Raceway which leads from the canal of the Janesville Water Power to the saw mill on said tract, piece or parcel of land and the dam, on the east by Rock river, on the south by a line parallel with the northern boundary and one hundred feet therefrom, on the west by the aforesaid canal, reserving however a right of way twenty feet wide along said canal across said lot, and also the right of way forever over the gore of land lying at the west end of the dam and between the above described lot and the canal, and also five hundred (500) square inches of water, as mentioned and described in a deed bearing even date with the said mortgage, from Charles Stevens and Eliza A., his wife, to the said Isaac M. Norton. Dated June 25th, 1854.

A STORE FOR SALE OR TO LET.

THE STORE and a Lot of ground known as Lot No 3, on Block No. 1, in the village and township of FULTON, Rock County, on the Catfish, near its confluence with Rock River, 11 miles northwest of Janesville.

The building is well calculated for a country store, being 23 feet front by 52 feet deep, and finished off above into convenient apartments either for a family or for offices, all in good condition.

The whole has been occupied for three years past by Messrs. T. E. and P. G. Green, as a store and dwelling, and being situated immediately opposite the Gristmill, is considered the best location for business in the village. The lot is two rods front by about seven rods deep.

This property will be sold or let on reasonable terms, and possession given immediately. For particulars enquire of MILLS & SAYRE, Fulton, or

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

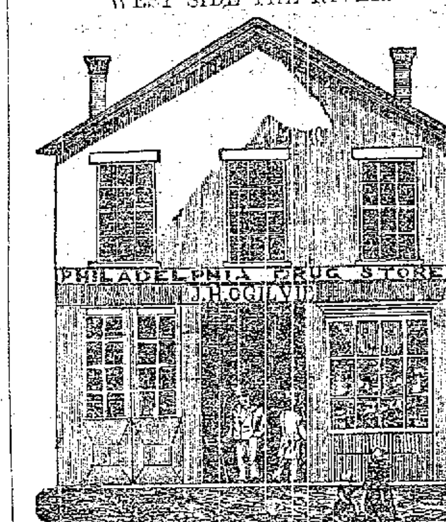

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

IRA P. BALLOU.

The Dry Goods Trade.

IMMENSE DAILY ARRIVALS!

Cash System Triumphant!

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT, SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Gro de Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Bareges, Barege Delaines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found

3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5¼ c., sold at other stores at 1s. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
4,000 do. 1s., sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s., sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼c., sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1600 Parasols. Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast.

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS,
Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware.

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

A GREAT MISTAKE.

J. B. CROSBY & Co.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down at which will crowd their store with customers and ensure large and heavy sales, thus making room for goods yet to arrive. Ladies and Gentlemen,

A TRIFLE ABOVE COST,

THIS IS NO HUMBUG,

but a REALITY, and to be convinced of this fact personally, look through their immense stock, see the amount of goods they have in store, (and but a portion of their stock has yet arrived,) enquire the price, and you will acknowledge that we will sell you

GOOD GOODS, at nearly half the Price,

that other Merchants charge. We shall not mention a few leading articles and their prices, and sell the balance of stock at higher rates, as other Merchants do, but shall mark our whole stock at a small regular profit, and adhere strictly to the

ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

Our stock consists of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c. &c., to which we invite especial attention, as to quality and price, as we are determined that

Every Sale shall give Full and Perfect Satisfaction,

Auction or shop worn goods which are not cheap at any price we do not deal in; but buy only the best grade of goods, and of the latest styles. We are the only House in Janesville that do a strictly cash business, and buying of importers and wholly for cash, we

CAN AND WILL SELL

CHEAPER AND BETTER GOODS,

than those who buy small stocks on time, and sell them the same way.

To Country Merchants,

We would say, that we will sell you goods at New York and Boston prices, adding freight. You will find us at the old stand of J. B. CROSBY, two doors above the Post Office.

Tobacco Manufactory.

DEWEY & HOLLANDER,

(Successors to Dewey & Chapin.)

HAVE furnished their Manufactory with a large stock of the best quality, and are prepared to

Manufacture Tobacco,

IN EVERY FORM IN WHICH IT IS USED.

They invite the attention of dealers to the Quality of their Material and their facilities for manufacturing, and are confident they can sell a Better Article at a Lower Price than any other manufactory in this region of country.

They are also prepared to Purchase all the Leaf Tobacco which may be offered them, and pay the highest price therefor.

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c. J. STEINERT, General Agent,

New England Mutual Life Ins.,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by letting them alone.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

Sky-Light Daguerreotypes.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE.

75 Cents to $5,00.

MR. J. E. POWERS, lately from Troy, (N. Y.) respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity that he has made a permanent location in Janesville, and has taken rooms over EHLE'S JEWELRY STORE, where he is prepared to take

Daguerreotype Likenesses,

Either single or in groups, not to be surpassed in Wisconsin. Miniatures taken in as good style as the Art can produce, having all the improved chemicals of the age, which, together with the advantages of a superior light, enable him to give a clear, bold and life-like picture.

Miniatures taken in all weathers equally well, and warranted not to fade in the least, from 75 cents to $1. Pictures taken over for 50 cents.

Lockets and fancy cases of all styles furnished to order, and also miniatures in Pin and Bracelets.

Miniatures of sick or diseased persons taken at their residences if required.

Pictures of Children of any age correctly taken at very low rates.

His Room will be open from 7 A. M. to 5 P. M., and he invites all those that wish to see GOOD Pictures, to

Call and Examine his Specimens,

Among these specimens are Miniatures of Henry Clay, John P. Hale, Jenny Lind and General Tom Thumb.

Instructions given in the art on reasonable terms.

Materials Furnished.

THE SUBSCRIBER is now prepared to furnish BUILDING MATERIALS in any quantity, and CHEAPER than can be sold any where else in this vicinity. Working one of the very best Quarries in the State, and possessing superior facilities for Getting Out and Dressing Stone, manufacturing himself Quick Lime, and having put in perfect operation his Mill for the manufacture of Water Lime, he can offer superior inducements to builders for the purchase of these articles. His

Water Lime,

Has been fully tested, and found to be of an excellent quality, and he is now prepared to WARRANT it in all cases, and offer it at a price making it an object to buy. In furnishing

Building Stone,

It is not too much to say he is in advance of all competitors. He can furnish them in the rough, or dressed, in any quantity, or of any size, and cheaper than can be found elsewhere.

Quick Lime,

Always on hand, and orders can be filled at all times, and to any extent.

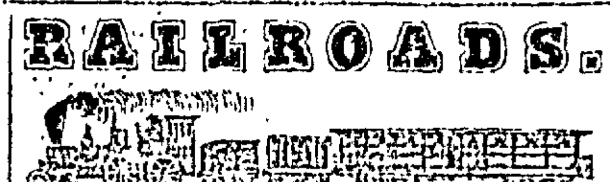

The subscriber has now invested a large amount of Capital in his operations, and has spared no expense in perfecting his works, and will give careful attention to the preparation of his materials. His location and the convenience of easy access to his Mill and Quarry, together with the superior character of his Materials, induces him to believe that he can give satisfaction to all who call upon him. RAILROADS.

Summer Arrangement.

1854 MILWAUKEE 1854

And Mississippi Railroad.

NOW in operation from Milwaukee to Madison, about 100 miles.

On and after May 29th, 1854, the trains will run as follows, except Sundays:

GOING WESTWARDLY.

A passenger train will leave Milwaukee at 7,30 A. M., arrive at Janesville at 11 A. M., at Madison, the capital of the State, at 12,40 P. M.

A passenger train will also leave Milwaukee at 5,15 P. M., on the arrival of the boat from Chicago, and reach Janesville and Madison the same evening.

GOING EASTWARDLY.

A passenger train will leave Madison for the present at 3 A. M., and Janesville at 5 A. M., and arrive at Milwaukee at 8, 30 A. M., in time to connect with the morning boat to Chicago.

A passenger train will also leave Madison at 1.30 P. M., and Janesville at 3,30 P. M., and arrive at Milwaukee at 7 P. M., in time to connect with the evening boat for Chicago.

Freight trains run each way every day the entire length of the road.

Stages will run in connection with the cars to and from the Forest House and Whitewater, to Watertown, Fort Winnebago, Fond du Lac, Beaver Dam, Horicon, Waupun and Berlin, which will commence running on and after June 10th.

Also from Janesville and Madison, to Sauk, Baraboo, Dodgeville, Mineral Point, Florence, Galena, Dubuque and to various other portions of the state.

Passengers are ticketed to and from Madison to Chicago at $5,00; and to and from Janesville to Chicago at $3,00.

N. B. The price from Milwaukee to all eastern points is the same as from Chicago, which makes the Milwaukee route the cheapest by several dollars.

SKETCHES OF BORDER-LIFE.

FLEET FOOT.—A LEGEND OF KENTUCKY.

BY WILLIAM T. COGGESHALL.

[Concluded.]

A considerable length of time had elapsed while the hunter was engaged in his dangerous enterprise of reconnoitering, and of communicating the glad tidings to the prisoners and it was far advanced in the night. He had for more than an hour expected that the Indians would appoint a watch for the prisoners, and break up their council. It must have been near midnight when he was gratified with a sight of preparations on the part of the savages, for a couple of hour's repose before they started on the march of the coming day. The hunter cautiously retreated from his proximity to the camp. Two savages left the main body, and approached their prisoners—the others wrapped themselves in their blankets, and stretched themselves upon the ground to sleep. The savages had secured their prisoners by tying their hands tightly behind large trees. They stood in this painful position several yards distant from each other.—The two warriors left to guard, manifested no disposition to allow them any position more favorable to rest or repose. Fleet Foot was a thoughtful observer of this neglect and it did not auger well in his mind for the safety of the prisoners on the morrow. He was impressed that the council which had just broken up, had decided on bloody deeds. He dare not act alone under such trying circumstances, and he determined to see Mac. It would have been no easy task for an inexperienced woodsman to have found his companion under such trying circumstances, but Fleet Foot had calculated well what were his chances of return to his friend, and he found but little difficulty in tracing his way to the vicinity where he left Mac. A signal well understood between the hunters, and not calculated to alarm the savages, had they heard it, was given and answered, and in a few minutes the brother and lover were earnestly consulting what was to be done to rescue Kate and her fellow prisoners.

"There are ten or a dozen of 'em," said Fleet Foot, "I can't exactly tell which, but any how, there's too many of 'em for us to fight, by powder; Ingins or no Ingins, them wimen shall be out of their clutches afore the varmints leave this camp, or I'm a dead hunter."

"That's my mind to a har," answered Mac, grasping Fleet Foot's hand.

"It's tarnal queer old Martin haint come up, but may be he has seen this fire, just as we did, and there's half a dozen of other fellows sneakin' about here now."

"May be," said Mac, "but we can't find 'em, and darsent make any signal or we'll have all them Ingins up in a minit, and no tellin' what might happen. We must calculate without 'em, and if we get into a fight and old Martin's about here, we'll have him on our side quick enough."

"Well," returned Fleet Foot, "there's only one way to do it—that fire's getting low—it wouldn't be queer if them Ingins on the watch went to sleep, 'cause they know the prisoners can't get away; and I'm certain they don't suspect anybody's on the track of 'em. If they did they wouldn't keep up sich a fire. Now, you follow me, and we'll go over there and watch the varmints, and whenever they shut their eyes, you take one and I'll take the other so quick he shan't give even a grunt, and then it'll be an easy matter to cut the prisoners loose."

Mac agreed to this arrangement. Daylight was now drawing near. Whatever plans were calculated on, must be executed without delay. The hunters knew if they succeeded in releasing the prisoners, as soon as the Indians discovered their loss, they would put forth every exertion, and exercise all their cunning to retake them; but with all this hazard before them, they resolved to release them if it was in their power, and trust to luck, shrewdness, and the probability of assistance from Martin's party. They were convinced that one or more of the prisoners would be killed on the morrow, and bravely and generously they thought it was worth while to risk their two lives to save three, one of which was particularly valuable to both hunters, but peculiarly so to one of them.

When the two Indian guards were growing weary and sleepy, they had no suspicions that two hunters with drawn knives were ready, if they slumbered, to make that their last sleep.

Fleet Foot began to fear that daylight would dawn before the savages nodded, and that the others would awaken and all would be lost.—Every moment increased the danger and narrowed the probabilities of rescue and escape. At length he brought himself to believe that the moment for action had arrived. He gave the concerted signal, and approached his victims who stood erect against a tree. He was successful, and drove his knife to the heart of the savage, who may have been dreaming, perhaps, of a wigwam far away, where children, of whom he was proud, awaited his return. The savage fell in his last sleep, heavily to the ground. That one which Mac was to have attacked, was startled by the fall. He was sitting upon the ground, nodding, but was not sound asleep. He sprang to his feet when Mac was not yet near enough to strike him. In an instant he would have been away from the dim light of the fire and out of sight of the hunter, but Mac rushed upon and grappled with him. Fleet Foot sprang to cut the bands which confined the prisoners. Meantime Mac struggled with the savage; both were powerful men—for a moment the savage was confused, and did not employ his strength and agility as he might have done under ordinary circumstances—of this confusion the hunter took advantage, and was quick enough to plunge his knife into the red man's breast—he fell with a cry which aroused his fellow warriors, who slumbered in confidence that his watchfulness protected them.

Ten Indians were on their feet, with their rifles in their hands, before the death cry of their guard had died in the woods. The fire, which they had left brightly burning, had nearly gone out. The brands were scattered. They could neither see their prisoners nor any foes. They did not rush forward to ascertain the fate of their sentinels, nor did they flee hastily from the spot where they had been sleeping. Each individual quietly skulked around a tree. No foe could see them. Not one of them could either see or hear a foe, but nevertheless there were very dangerous foes quite near them.

When Fleet Foot rushed to release the prisoners, he found the good work accomplished. A rough hand grasped his arm, and a voice which he knew well, said:

"We've been watchin' the varmints most all night. They're skeered now, but they won't run nor show themselves yet awhile; our boys understands. We must lay low with our guns cocked till it's day, and we'll all git a blaze at 'em. How many?"

"Ten I guess," said Fleet Foot.

"Take care o' this woman;" said old Martin.

It was Kate. Fleet Foot said not a word; but put his arm around the girl as if he had a special right to protect her.

There was no wind stirring. It was as quiet in the deep woods, as if there had been no Indian camp—no desperate adventure—no struggle the scene of death. Softly the morning light began to steal through the dense foliage—it searched its way among the green leaves, and slowly dissipated the gloom which hung tenaciously around the trunks of the trees—among the low bushes, and in the wooded ravines. The fox went snuffling to his hole—the rabbit hopped timidly from one moss bed or grass tuft to another—the birds left their nests and sang sweetly on twigs, which overhung fallen leaves stained with blood—the squirrel left its nest, and sat securely chippering on boughs that bent toward ashes, which were the result of a flame that had given light for the planning and executing of bold and daring designs.

Many an animal was, no doubt, watching in that flesh light of morning for an opportunity to secure such prey as he was wont to satisfy his hunger upon; and there were other eyes watching an opportunity to satisfy a passion, which will lead men often to more desperate deeds than hunger. The quiet, beautiful scene, a lover of nature would have rejoiced to delight in, was to be disturbed by other conflicts than those between cruel animals and their victims.

It was scarcely broad daylight, when one of the Indian warriors thought he saw a movement in a clump of bushes, a dozen rods or more distant from him. He watched, intently. He was not mistaken; other Indians had their suspicions excited; knowing glances were exchanged. The suspicious bush became more attractive to the savages. Presently, what was apparently a woman's bonnet, was to be seen cautiously elevated nearly to the top of the bushes, slowly turning around as if there were foes, or suspicious sign of foes in view. A rifle report rang through the forest, and the exposed bonnet disappeared. Again the woods was free from unusual sounds. It was not long before Indians skulked from one tree to another. They were at first very cautious, but they saw nothing to awaken suspicion, and they became more bold. Now one left his ambuscade, then another. It was not long before eight warriors stood near the spot where the fire of the night previous had gleamed on both exulting and hopeless faces. They talked rapidly, and seemed deciding upon the course they should pursue; suddenly their council was brought to a violent conclusion, by the unerring aim of half a dozen invisible rifles, and as many savages, springing into the air, fell dead, while four others—two of them from the council, and two others from an ambush, who were about leaving to join the council—bounded away through the woods with an energy which indicated that each knew he who was the fleetest, stood the first chance of escape. The hindmost Indian had not gone many rods before a ball arrested his career.

Fleet Foot had his eye upon one who distanced all the others. He recognized him by peculiar marks as the savage who had well nigh overtaken him on the two trying occasions previously mentioned, when his fleetness saved his life. The Indian had no weapon but his hunting knife. Fleet Foot dropped his unloaded rifle, and bounded swiftly in pursuit. Shouts rang after him as he sped his way. The Indian glanced behind him, saw what danger threatened him. He redoubled his energies, yet Fleet Foot gained on him, cheered as he was in the daring race by Mac, who followed with all his speed, but was barely able to keep in sight.

Away went the savage, bounding over logs, leaping ravines, and climbing steep banks, and after him came Fleet Foot, straining every muscle to its utmost tension. The hunters were all excited about the chase, and several were endeavoring to keep in sight of those who had already lost sight of Fleet Foot. There was one person who could not join in the chase, who had deeper in his fate than all the hunters—an interest which was confessed in soft whispers, when Fleet Foot was taking care of her as old Martin had directed him, in that hour of great suspense to the hunters and to the Indians, which they had passed before daylight. She would have endeavored to restrain Fleet Foot from his mad chase, but she did not know that such a race was to be run, until her lover was nearly out of her sight.

Fleet Foot was gaining faster and faster on the savage, who redoubled his energies; he took wild leaps and sudden turns, but the white man was equal to him in agility, and, at length, when there was a clear piece of woods before him, he found that he must soon be overtaken. Too brave to allow himself to be struck or taken prisoner when in flight, he turned and awaited his pursuer. Nothing daunted, Fleet Foot pressed forward. The Indian had the advantage, should he rush upon him, and the hunter checked his career when within a few paces of the savage. A moment the foes glanced at each other. Three times had Fleet Foot distanced this indian, thrice to save his own life—the last time—the present one, to take the life of the red man.—Each knew the other. Now was to come a struggle severer than any previously decided between them. The indian was the larger man, and he was, perhaps, better skilled in the use of the knife.

The savage did not wait for his foe to recover from his long chase, but when his eye had run over the frame of his antagonist, and taken in the distance between them, he sprang toward him, fiercely aiming a violent blow with his knife which Fleet Foot dexterously parried, almost at the same moment giving the savage a left handed blow which staggered him. Following up his advantage, Fleet Foot made a thrust at the Indian's breast; the red man caught the arm which bore a knife swiftly toward his heart, and then followed a tight tussle—a moment, two knives gleamed in the air, then both fell upon the ground, and the indian and the hunter were each struggling to escape the other's grasp. Fleet Foot was borne to the earth, and the indian striving to keep him there, exerted himself also to the utmost to reach one of the knives. He was a stronger man than the hunter, and he had a great advantage over him, yet the hunter held so firmly, he could not reach a knife. He dare not release his hold the slightest, lest the hunter should spring to his feet.

His powerful knees were crushing the hunter's breast—his brawny hands were clenched around Fleet Foot's neck—a gleam of triumph danced in his savage eyes, which glared upon Fleet Foot's blackening face. The savage felt sure of his victim—his fleet and daring foe—this wicked joy expressed itself in every feature of his brawny countenance, and broke upon the air in a wild, fiendish laugh—that laugh was meant to be a knell for the hunter, but it nerved him to one great struggle—a struggle in which all his energy was concentrated—in which every muscle strained—every nerve stretched; he rose partly from the ground, bearing up the athletic savage, who lost the dangerous grasp, by which for a few moments he had been almost forcing the hunter's eyes from their sockets, but Fleet Foot only wasted his strength in that last struggle—he fell back upon the earth completely in the power of the infuriated savage, who was swift to perceive the surest and quickest mode of wreaking his passion, and he clenched in his right hand one of the knives which had fallen in the early part of the affray—he brandished it over his head—and from its polished blade bright reflections were a moment cast, as it hung in the air.

A low, shrill whistle might have been heard near the savage—the gleaming knife fell, but the savage fell with it, his features fixed in death, with them that fiendish exultation stamped upon them, which had nerved Fleet Foot to his last effort—that whistle which might have been heard near the savage, when he poised the knife, was from the swift passage of a rifle ball that lodged in his breast. With the report which rang after the ball, there came a shout that lifted Fleet Foot from his prostrated position.

Mac had come within rifle shot, just in time to save his friend's life.

Fleet Foot had been nearly strangled, and was much exhausted, but he soon rallied, and looking at the form of his foe, which was lying beside him, he said:

"It was a tight scuffle, Mac, by powder, and I'd been in kingdom come now if it had'nt been for you!"

"That's uncomfortably true," answered Mac. "You brag about runnin," but it liked to lost your scalp for you this time. That fellow was enough for you on a race, and a leetle too much in a fight."

Fleet Foot and Mac, on retracing their steps, were met by the other hunters—there were joyful meetings which need not be described—nor scarcely need it be told, that, when the party reached the Fort (which it did early the following day,) there were immediate preparations for a backwoods wedding, which was not long afterward celebrated in a rude, but for the period, distinguished style.

Fleet Foot figured prominently in the latter annals of Kentucky, and was subsequently known as general ——. He left a posterity which has been engaged in modern politics as warmly as was ever their brave ancestor in pioneer enterprise.

The Daily Gazette.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 25, 1854.

☞ We should have been pleased had we been able to give to our readers the opinion of Chief Justice Whiton, at length, in the case of Ableman vs. the state of Wisconsin, &c., but to do so, our limits would have compelled us to continue it through several days, thereby impairing its interest. To remedy this as far as possible, we shall publish to-morrow a carefully prepared synopsis of the whole argument, which next to the text itself, will give the best idea of it to be obtained. The high authority from which it comes, and the importance of the matter involved in this decision make it one of extraordinary interest. A law has been enacted by congress obnoxious to the people of the north in its theory, and doubly so in its practical operations, in that it contravenes one of the dearest principles of true republicanism, the right of trial by jury. To the supreme court of Wisconsin is presented the first opportunity to decide upon the constitutionality of that law, and the court pronounces it unconstitutional. The dissenters from this opinion either in point of feeling or of common sense, will be few indeed, and it starts a precedent which we hope will have its effect in other states.

☞ The Milwaukee Sentinel is troubled because the stock-holders of the Rock River Valley railroad are to have a meeting in New York, and thinks it is an inconvenient place for the meeting of the stock-holders of a Wisconsin railroad company. Perhaps if our officious neighbor had made known his wishes in the matter before the place was fixed for the meeting, the executive committee, in view of the untiring interest he has ever exhibited in the prosperity of the enterprise they have in charge, would have put themselves out to meet his his views; as it is now, we can hardly see how he is to help himself.

☞ Our telegarpic report is somewhat disjointed, in consequence of the bad working of the line between here and Milwaukee, and a portion of it was entirely lost.

☞ We hear that Cassius M. Clay is to address the citizens of Beloit to-day. Would it not be well to extend an invitation to him to visit Janesville?

☞ The Milwaukee papers state that the damage done at the collision of the two freight trains near Palmyra, the other day, will not be as great as was first supposed. The superintendent thinks that $2000 will cover the damage and complete all the repairs.

THE APPLICATION DENIED.—We stated in Friday's Sentinel that Gen. Payne, of counsel for S. M. Booth, had gone to Madison to apply to the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus. Argument in support of the application was offered by Gen. Payne. On Saturday the court overruled the application, upon the ground that the jurisdiction of the U. S. court had already attached and they therefore declided to interfere. In this decision we understand the court to have been unanimous. We presume that Mr. Booth will now give bail and stand his trial upon the indictment.—Mil. Sent.

ANOTHER RELIC.—The Detroit Tribune has brought to light a letter written by Mr. Stuart, now U. S. senator from Michigan, in 1847, in answer to one asking for a statement of his political opinions. Mr. Stuart says:

"So far as the slave states have rights under the constitution and laws of the Union, they should, in my opinion, be held inviolate. But in the organization of territorial governments, whether out of our present possessions, or such as we may hereafter acquire, a provision ought in my opinion to be incorporated prohibiting slavery."

Mr. Stuart voted for the Nebraska bill.

A FALLING MARKET.—The panic in the N. Y. money market continues. All descriptions of rail road stocks, bonds and securities are going down "by the run." How far they will fall before they stop, is difficult to guess. On Tuesday last, N. Y. Central sold down to 89, Michigan Central to 88, Illinois Central (bonds) to 89, Hudson River to 51 and N. Y. and Erie to 48! This last is a fall of 15 per cent. in three weeks. But while stocks are falling, money is growing easier. The N. Y. Mirror of the 18th says:

This unprecedented depression in stocks seems to work in exactly an opposite direction in monetary affairs. Capital is rapidly increasing, and the banks are discounting with great freedom. All good paper offering is done by those banks which are in a healthy condition. Money may now be regarded as perfectly easy. Call loans are negotiated readily at 6a7 per cent., and short paper at legal rates of interest. That of longer date—say four and six months—still commands from 10 to 12 per cent.

A SNAKE STORY.—The Fond du Lac Union is responsible for giving the following good story to the public:

STOCKBRIDGE, July 10, 1854.

To the Editor of The Fond du Lac Union.

DEAR SIR:—I wish to inform the public through you of a most remarkable case of a snake existing in the human stomach. The circumstances are as follows: The girl who is now fourteen years old, was taken sick some eight years ago, when a physician was called, who treated her with no success; soon another was called, who proved also unsuccessful; and another, and another, but without success.—The girl grew worse, and had so attained the actions of the snake that the children dare not sleep with her; she was also subject to fits, the cause arising from the snake crawling through the esophagus to the throat, which result was from the cooking of meat. She became emaciated and confined to her bed, when after the treatment of several physicians, the case was pronounced hopeless, when I accidentally heard of doctor Barnett, a young man residing in Fond du Lac, to whom I applied, and I am happy to say that after a successful treatment of five days the snake was passed by stool. The girl is fast recovering. The measurement of the snake was about eighteen inches long and one inch in diameter.

Yours, Dr. A. H. BETTS.

We the undersigned know the above facts to be true. Dr. BALDWIN, Stockbridge.
Dr. FOWLER, Manchester.

EMPHATIC.—A democrat convention was lately held at Columbus, Ind., to nominate a candidate for congress. Immense noise and confusion prevailed, but finally a motion to adjourn was carried. The result was then announced by the chairman, Col. Lee.

"Gentlemen, I declare this Convention adjourned, without a nomination, by G—d!"

An old colored man named Mitchell, of respectable character, and well known by many in this city, where he had lived more than forty years, died of cholera on Monday afternoon, at the age of one hundred and four years. His business was picking oakum, and he continued it until Saturday. The disease was brought on by eating cherries; and but for this imprudence he might have lived for some years yet, as he was remarkablhaley and rugged for his years. He had accumulated several hundred dollars in bank and owned 30 or 40 acres of land in Canada.—Sixty-two years of his life had been spent as a slave in Kentucky.—[Detroit Inquirer.

Dr. Arnold wrote poems on principle, but he never published them. Tom Moore tells of a gentleman who, when he was short of money always threatened his family with the publication of his poems. The immediate result was as much cash as he wanted.

SIGNIFICANT IF TRUE.—Statistics show that graduates of colleges contribute double their proportion of crime. Graduates in some of our state prisons are more than two to one of any other class, according to their numbers. It is a notorious fact that student life is generally one of license, that more mischief and rowdyism are enacted by young men at college than by any other class of people claiming to be respectable. The sole reason of this is the same which makes sailors and soldiers wicked, the want of that natural restraint, the presence of the other sex. Men do not stoop to be rowdies when with women they deem their equals.—Mrs. Swisshelm.

The rumor from Boston, published Monday of an over-issue of the stock of the Vermont Central railroad, is hardly credible. The stock is almost worthless in the market, being nominally held at $3 ¼ per share, and cannot be sold at that. Crane, the president, must be a very industrious man if he was to make day wages by fabricating "shares" in that company. A man might as well be employed in manufacturing notes on wild-cat banks, as in issuing spurious stock of a company whose genuine shares cannot be turned into money.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

GREAT TEST OF REAPERS.—Mr. J. S. Wright, of Chicago, the proprietor of Atkin's automaton reaper, and J. H. Manny, of Rockford, have agreed to have a test trial of the merits of their respective machines. The main point to be decided is whether the self-raking apparatus is really an advantage. Manny contends that it is not. Each of the proprietors chooses an umpire, and these two a third, who are to decide the matter. The stake is $1,500, which sum the beaten party is to pay to the Illinois State Agricultural Society.

A STRANGE SUIT.—A libel suit has been tried in Scottville, New York, growing out of the following facts:

At the town election in March, a ticket was procured to be printed, and to some extent voted, on which were the names of about a dozen ladies of that place, who were designated for the various town offices. It was assumed or implied that the ladies with whom this liberty was taken, favored the woman's right movement. The ballot was styled the "Shanghae ticket," and bore a head device a cut of a magnificent bird of Chinese origin.

The friends of the ladies not relishing this "fun," have prosecuted for libel those whom they believe to be the authors of the ticket. It is said that the affair causes no little local excitement.

WON'T OBEY.—The citizens of Rockford have been having some good times recently on account of certain ordinances which the city council of that place passed about the 1st inst., requiring all the business houses to be closed at 9, o'clock in the evening, and making it the duty of the policemen to enquire into the business of every man that was found walking in the streets after that hour; and also making it their duty, if lights were seen in houses after 9, to go in and ascertain the cause, and if no good reason could be given make complaint and fine the guilty ones. The officers undertook to enforce the ordinances on the evening of 4th., and some of the citizens becoming disgusted took great pains violate it, and for the first two or three evenings after the 4th they congregated in large numbers and fired cannon and made "night hideous with their yells" until after midnight.—The officers did not interfere, and we presume the ordinance has gone to keep company with the "black laws of Illinois."—Freeport Bulletin.

CHOLERA ON THE PLAINS.—A letter to the Providence Journal from an officer of the U. S. army, dated Camp, near Platte river, Nebraska territory, chronicles the march of a body of troops across the plains from Fort Leavenworth a distance of 300 miles, under very gloomy circumstances. Shortly after leaving the fort, the cholera got among the men, and for a while they died at the rate of two or three a day.—They were buried two in a grave, after dark, without music or service, to avoid frightening the rest of the sick. After reaching the high land the sickness ceased.

The Buffalo Republic states that DeanRichmond, Esq., the vice president of the Central railroad company has sold certain real estate to that corporation to be used for the purpose of a depot, for the snug little sum of $250,000

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

SUCH AS THE CHOLERA CALLS FOR.—A family of Germans, who resided on the Chicago road, within fifteen minutes walk from the city hall, and had been supported at public expense for the last eight weeks, have been swept away by the cholera. First, the father was taken, then the two children, and lastly, the mother, in whose underskirt was found two thousand and five hundred dollars in gold. They have lived amid reeking filth, foul stenches, and health-destroying vapors, for weeks, and had imposed upon the public charity; but their avarice has availed them nothing; they are rotting in untimely graves of their own seeking, and the country is sole heir to their concealed wealth.—Detroit Free Press.

A DREADFUL RECORD.—Within four years past there have been over 1200 deaths by violence at San Francisco, California, of which it is said that 150 were cases of murder. For all this ocean of crime, but one man has been convicted by law, and suffered the penalty.

SAD.—We learn that a gentleman from Chicago arrived here on Saturday from that city with three children—all that were left to him of a family consisting of a wife, five children, niece, and brother-in-law. One of the remaining children was taken sick just before reaching this place and died Sunday evening. The bereaved parent with two children is left to go on to the home of relatives near Buffalo.—Detroit Trib. 18th inst.

AN ANCIENT MAINE LAW.—Among the ancient Germans some two thousand years ago, there was a tribe or nation called the Suevians, who would not suffer wine to be brought into their territory because they said it enervates the mind and unfits the body for exercise or labor. Yet these men were classed among barbarians by the Romans.

SINGULAR AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—The following accident occurred a few days ago, on the New York Central railroad:

"As the lightning train was passing the flag station, at Allen's creek, a stick of wood fell from the tender upon one of the wheels, by which it was projected with the velocity of a rifle ball in the direction of the house of the flag man, who was standing in his door. The stick, which was about four inches square, struck the man square in the head, passing nearly through it, and of course killing him instantly. The deceased's name was Fair n'berg, and he leaves a wife and three or four children.

The North British Review, alluding to the stunted vegetation of the islands on the northern coast of Scotland, says the things growing there "by courtesy called trees, have a bad habit of resembling large shaving brushes, very much the worse of wear on one side."

PUNCH ON BONNETS—LAST AND BEST.—The last number of Punch contains a pictorial guess at the distance at which ladies' bonnets will be worn from their heads at the next remove. The tendency has been further and still further rearward, and the next change, Punch thinks, will carry them off the head entirely; so he represents the next fashion by two young ladies in full dress and bare-headed, sailing along the street, with a footman walking some ten feet behind, carrying the bonnets on a waiter.

We are kindly apprised by telegraph from Washington, that "the president will send in his veto of the river and harbor bill in a few days." We hope the president will not veto the bill in advance of its passage by congress. Our last authentic intelligence from the seat of government represented the river and harbor bill to be pending in the senate, with some doubt of its fate in that body.—Buff. Com.

THE HOMESTEAD BILL.—There is still hope that this measure will pass the senate. The latest despatch from Washington, July 21st, reports that the bill was ordered to be engrossed, though by what vote is not stated.

One of them was rather light in size, a fine looking brown color, a small white star in his forehead, a grey nose, about ten years old last spring, marked on both shoulders with the collar, and one foot with a small white spot; when in the harness he is high-spirited. The other was a heavy white horse, high-hipped, oldish looking, stiff in the forward parts, and marked with the collar on the top of the neck. Whoever will return these horses to Mr. Colley living within 1½ miles of Beloit, or to David Noggle at Janesville, shall receive a reward of $20; or whoever will give information where they may be found shall be suitably rewarded. # BY TELEGRAPH!

[REPORTED FOR THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 24, 3 P. M.

Steamer Pacific arrived with 4 days later news from Europe. Wheat has declined 4a6 pence, flour one shilling. Consols 95.

No battle of importance has transpired yet.—Napier had withdrawn his fleets from before Constadt.

Prussia is forcing Austria with new negotiations. Strong suspicions are still entertained of the Austrians' good faith towards the Czar. Prussia sends a special envoy to Austria asking her to refrain from further steps with England and France but join her in new negotiations for peace.

Austria has countermanded the advance of of her army into Wallachia.

The Turks have crossed the Danube in considerable force.

An action occurred on ahe 5th at Gieusgero in which 160 Russians were killed and 200 wounded.

It is rumored that the combined fleets attacked Constadt on the 30th, but the further accounts say that the fleets anchored at Bard sound and that no engagement has taken place. It is reported that Russia is concentrating 300,000 men against Austria.

An engagement had occurred between the Russians and Barshabusouks in Asia. The latter lost 3000 men. 30,000 Russians have advanced from Odessa towards the Pruth. Particulars of the evacuation of the principalittes by the Russians are very contradictory.

An interview has taken place between prince Gortschakoff and the emperor of Austria. Russia has been occupying the ports on the Caspian sea. Persia has declared against the agression.

Four hundred cases of cholera are reported to have occurred in one day at St. Petersburgh.

Spain all quiet. At Madrid troops remain faithful to the Queen. The progress of the insurgents is slow.

London money market active. Consols had declined, closing at 92. The decline was owing to the complicated state of the war.

The Arabia arrived at Liverpool on the morning of the 9th.

NEW YORK, July 24th.

The North Star arrived here. The health of the isthmus continues good.

MADISON MUSIC STORE.

THE undersigned has in his Ware Room, in Bruen's Model Block, a good assortment of Piano Fortes, Melodeons, and MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS generally. Some of the best manufacturers in the Union have samples of their work there.

Chickering, Hallet & Davis, Lemuel Gilbert, Woodward & Brown, Loren Matts of Boston, and Hall & Son of New York, are all contributors to his stock of Pianos.

Prince & Co., Bishop & Child, and S. D. & H. W. Smith's Melodeons are there also. These instruments are not found in auction rooms and other places where forced sales are made to raise money for the makers, for their reputation always commands customers on the manufacturers own terms. They are all for sale at factory prices, and warranted satisfactory.

Pianos from other manufactories can be furnished if desired.

An experienceced and disinterested agent in New York selects for the subscriber any style and priced instrument desired—in whose judgment, musical skill and taste, implicit confidence can be placed.

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the
BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense
STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,
His inimitable selection of
Fancy Dress Goods!
He has over
10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,
of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,
FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,
Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamellon and Foulard Silks, but all manner of
Cotton, Grass & Linen Goods
are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—
Eyed French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,
And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said
"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of
GLOVES,
by which hands can be protected and retain
"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are
"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"
the Nonparells of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the
COARSE-HAND SEX.
Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—
PANTALOONS,
CALF "BEWTS,"COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,
HATS
That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,
The Boston Store
Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer
DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.
In the
CROCKERY
Line may be found the
BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have
"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till It o'errun the stew," they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not
"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop, More in mock than mark."

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c.—also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US!—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.
Respectfully,
COOLEY & BABCOCK.

Merchant Tailor, & Dealer in Ready Made Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,

HAS received his Spring and Summer STOCK, consisting of the very Best and Fashionable CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS AND VESTINGS, of English, French and American manufacture.

This establishment is now, as usual, the favorite place of resort for the Fashionable, the Cutting Department still being under my own personal supervision, and warranted to suit the most difficult, twenty per cent lower than any other establishment in the State.

No Fit, No Sale. is my doctrine.
You will ask how I can do this; I will tell you: From my long experience in this business, and being a practical Tailor, I know when, where and how to buy my Goods, what to pay for them, and how to cut them, not having to secure the services of an eminent artist, at a salary of $1,000 to $1,500 a year, which the purchaser must pay for—this is the secret. I have got on hand a good assortment of
Ready Made Clothing,
of my own manufacture, and warranted in every respect. Call and examine, before you buy elsewhere.

GREAT SALE OF
REAL ESTATE!
Rare Chance for Investment!
600 Village Lots!

THE undersigned offers at private sale SIX HUNDRED VILLAGE LOTS, situated in "Hickory Glen" and "Pixley & Shaw's" addition to Janesville, and located in the immediate vicinity of the Milwaukee and Mississippi railroad depot, in the city of Janesville.

The above property is but a short distance from the present business center of the thriving city of Janesville, and towards which, through the influence of the various railroads, in operation and projected, the business of the city is fast finding its way.

It is unnecessary to speak of the peculiar advantages of an investment in a property so centrally located in the largest inland city in the State of Wisconsin—a city so widely known for its thrift and business prosperity, possessing extensive water-power and surrounded by the best farming country in the world—as every one at all conversant with the progress of western cities will see at once these advantages.

The above property is offered at very low rates, and on the most favorable terms, particularly to those who wish to make immediate improvements on purchases.

Also, 1,000 Acres of the
Best Improved Farming Lands,
situated within a few miles of the city, which will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, from 40 to 320 acres.

For particulars enquire of the undersigned at "Pixley & Kimball's Hardware Store," or of THOMAS SHAW. B. F. PIXLEY.

NEW GOODS!
$15,000 Worth of
JUST RECEIVED AT THE
Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store,

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of
Ladies Fine Shoes,
in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.
In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.
I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can
and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.
Leather and Findings.
I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at
Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.
I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kinds of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,
I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates.
Yours respectfully,
J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

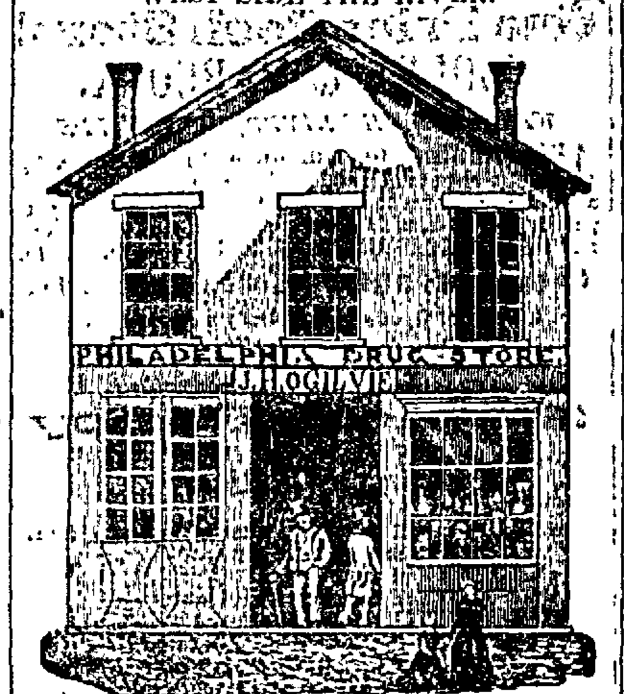

IRA P. BALLOU.

The Spring & Summer Campaign of 1854 IS NOW OPEN!

A NEW WAR AGAINST HIGH PRICES OF MERCHANDISE HAS JUST BROKEN OUT, AT

The Dry Goods Trade.

IMMENSE DAILY ARRIVALS!

Cash System Triumphant!

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT, SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Gro de Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Bareges, Barege De laines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found

3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5¼ c., sold at other stores at 1s. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
1,000 do. 1s., sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s, sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼c, sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1600 Parasols. Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast.

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS,

Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware.

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

Remember the Store, corner Main & Milwaukee streets.

A GREAT MISTAKE!

J. B. CROSBY & Co.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down at which will crowd their store with customers and ensure large and heavy sales, thus making room for goods yet to arrive. Ladies and Gentlemen,

A TRIFLE ABOVE COST,

THIS IS NO HUMBUG,

but a REALITY, and to be convinced of this fact personally, look through their immense stock, see, the amount of goods they have in store, (and but a portion of their stock has yet arrived,) enquire the price, and you will acknowledge that we will sell you

GOOD GOODS, at nearly half the Price,

that other Merchants charge. We shall not mention a few leading articles and their prices, and sell the balance of stock at higher rates, as other Merchants do, but shall mark our whole stock at a small regular profit, and adhere strictly to the

ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

Our stock consists of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c. &c., to which we invite especial attention, as to quality and price, as we are determined that

Every Sale shall give Full and Perfect Satisfaction.

Auction or shop worn goods which are not cheap at any price we do not deal in; but buy only the best grade of goods, and of the latest styles. We are the only House in Janesville that do a strictly cash business, and buying of importers and wholly for cash, we

CAN AND WILL SELL

than those who buy small stocks on time, and sell them the same way.

To Country Merchants,

We would say, that we will sell you goods at New York and Boston prices, adding freight. You will find us at the old stand of J. B. CROSBY, two doors above the Post Office.

1854 SPRING TRADE 1854

—OF—

DRUGS, MEDICINES.

PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, &C.,

NOW OPEN!

NEW GOODS RECEIVED, AND THE HEAVIEST STOCK IN THE INTERIOR.

TO THE TRADE.

We would offer inducements never before realized by purchasers. To replenish their stock from us, all we ask is 10 per cent from eastern prices, adding freight and insurance. This we can do, as our facilities for procuring goods are superior to any establishment west; and having no rents to make up on our sales, we are enabled to SELL THINGS CHEAPER, AND WARRANT PURE than any other house.

PRESCRIPTIONS AND FAMILY MEDICINES accurately compounded, all hours, day or night.

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism, Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints, Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciataca, General Debility,
Paralysis, Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease, Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness, Rheumatic Pains of the

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled, molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c. J. STEINERT, General Agent,

A STORE FOR SALE OR TO LET.

THE STORE and a Lot of ground known as Lot No 3, on Block No. 1, in the villave and township of FULTON, Rock County, on the Catfish, near its confluence with Rock river, 11 miles northwest of Janesville.

The building is well calculated for a country store, being 24 feet front by 52 feet deep, and finished off above into convenient apartments either for a family or for offices, all in good condition.

The whole has been occupied for three years past by Messrs. T. E. and F. G. Green, as a store and dwelling, and being situated immediately opposite the Gristmill, is considered the best location for business in the village. The lot is two rods front by about seven rods deep.

This property will be sold or let on reasonable terms, and possession given immediately. For particularr enquire of MILLS & SAYRE, Fulton, so
